

F. J. PARTY

Doreen Ann McGuire was dinner and evening hostess Saturday night May 9, to Sue Crawford, Bobbie Conley, Doris Holder, Patsy Derberry and Doris Teas. Following dinner a movie was enjoyed followed by a pajama party, actually an "all night wake." And the group attended church together the following day.

I had no sooner gotten ready to speculate on what local young lady would attract the sparkling eye of the attractive new assistant county agent, 'MAC' MACMAHAN than I hear he took bride just last Saturday, in Raleigh.

Mae spoke the vows with ELIZABETH LOVELL of Raleigh Saturday. Elizabeth is a health educator with the State Board of Health. And it's going to be such a busy time for the pair, that I'm afraid there won't be much of a honeymoon—at least for the first couple of weeks or so.

Ma graduated in Animal Husbandry from N. C. State College after the winter quarter, but he received his diploma officially June 7 at commencement exercises.

After that, Mac will have to be in Raleigh for Farm and Home Week and, after that he will under go two weeks of "in service" training, also at N. C. State. Then, the newlyweds will come to Murphy to be "at home"

QUICKIES

JACK BARNETT was home before I knew he had gone from and to Washington, D. C. for about four days in the capital city. He went by plane and visited friends, for what most have been a wonderful little vacation. He leaves soon—tomorrow, I think for Nashville and Peabody where he will get his master's degree this summer.

HUBERT WILLIAMS, out of the Army as of last week on Wednesday, was so excited about being mustered out that he plumb walked away and left his discharge papers!

HARRY DICKEY is finally going to settle down to business after being home and out of the service for several weeks. He went back to practice—of denistry that is—Tuesday. And I hear that the Dickeys are planning to build a new home in the near future, on a pretty knoll beyond Mrs. Witherspoon's home.

REV. AND MRS. MILTON L. WOOD, of All Saints Episcopal Church, Atlanta, have been the guests this week of Dr. AND BRYAN WHITFIELD.

MARY FRANCES AXLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porrtter Axley will leave Murphy tomor
