Woman Talk

By EMILY COSTELLO

I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Cupid himself isn't MRS. CORA BRYSON'S star boarder at the Henry House, after hearing of the exciting nuptials to be Saturday night.

Mrs. Bryson will be married to D. L. DAVIS, a native of Cherokee County who has been living most recently in Springfield, O.

The ceremony will take place at the Henry House Saturday at 6 p. m., with Rev. J. Alton Morris officiating. A. MARTENS will be best man, and I don't know who Mrs. B's attendant will be.

A ring ceremony will be used (Mrs. B. is wearing a mighty pretty diamond ring now), and following the ceremony dinner will be served. (Most appropriate for the H. House.)

A number of guests will be present, including relatives of both the bride and bridegroom, as well as all Mrs. B's 'children'. (That's what shee calls all of us who live or eat at her house.) The couple will not go on a wedding trip right away, but later in the season they plan a trip to California.

And, by the way, she has told all her children she's not going to leave them—just getting them a 'daddy'.

Anyhow, it will be very sweet and lovely and my blessings on them both.

They will make their home at the Henry House, I am delighted to report.

STEAK MEAL

DOT AND L. L. MASON entertained Saturday night at steaks for 12 hungry people. I'm gauging everybody's appetite by our own. Anyhow all were amply served with wonderful steaks, and the usual French fries, and some grand tossed salad.

Honored guests were MARIE AND JIM TUCKER of Black Mountain, and INEZ GALLOWAY (the former Mrs. Charles Galloway who used to live in Murphy, you remember), and JOE TAYLOR, the latter two of Asheville. Also present were JAUNITA AND BOB WEAVER and us and DOT, son, Johnny, and the Weavers, Bobby.

The two honored couples were spending the week end in our county.

HOUSE HUNTING

That nice TVA couple, the BAUFMANS, are still house-hunting, I hear. I do hope they'll soon be comfortably situated in Murphy. At present they're here during the week, and back at Fontana, where they still have a home, on week ends.

BEACHING

OPIE AND HOBART MCKEEVER and ROSEMOND AND H. A. MATTOX have returned after about 10 days beaching at Morehead City.

VISITORS

BOB WHITE'S mother, Mrs. T. F. Royall of Wadesboro, and her sisters, MRS. RUTH JORDAN and MISS LILLIAN LINEBERGER of Charlotte, are expected today to spend the week end with Bob and Jean here.

NEW ROOM

SALLY MORRIS and ANNE SHIELDS last week visited relatives of Sally in Anderson, S. C. While there they drove to Greenville and Sally and her roommate, an Easley, S. C. girl picked out their room at Furman—which they say is very roomy and well located.

HOME I THINK

Pretty BARBARA RHOADS is back home after spending some time in Asheville. Or at least she was home at the last count I made. She might have gone again.

DINNER AND MUSIC

We had a wonderful time at the Farmer's Federation dinner the other night at the Regal Hotel, followed by a most enjoyable musical program at the Cherokee Hotel, we heard the hilarious and famed PANHANDLE PETE.

Was glad to see MRS. G. W. COVER of Andrews present and looking mighty well. I hear Mrs. Cover had as her guest recently MRS. E. G. LEE of Asheville Mrs. Lee is a member of the Asheville City School Board.

MR. AND MRS. GENE MALLO-NEE and children, Steve and David, of Miami, Fla., are visiting Mr. Mallonee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mallonee.

MR. AND MRS. C. R. FREED enjoyed a visit from son WILLIAM FREED and family over the week end. They are from Elkin and were enroute to Orlando, Fla. Also a visitor was Mrs. Kenneth Gore of Philadelphia, Pa., Mr. Freed's niece.

THE YOUNGER SET

Murphy's nice younger set enjoyed a weiner roast at Cane Creek Monday night, with about everybody "pitching in" and everybody attending. Sounds like a mighty happy affair but the rain sent them indoors before they had a chance to eat. They finally ended up at the Baptist Church Besement I believe.

And while on the subject of the young folks, it seems the attractive and eligible young men boarding at the Henry House this summer, are making it a nicer summer for some of the town's young ladies.

RANCH, NO LESS

I'm looking forward to a Sunday trip soon to Buck Creek Ranch between Hayesville and Franklin, for ranchstyle dinner. The ranch has been purchased and is being operated by MRS. GEORGE L. WRIGHT, formerly Virginia Howard of Murphy. Mrs. Wright and three children, Judy, Michael and Patrick are operating the family vacation spot this summer and will return to Highland Park, Ill., in the fall to join husband-father, George, who is working in Chicago.

HYDE TO PREACH

The Rev. Alvin Bud Hyde and his quartet from Marynton, Ga., will be at the South End Baptist Church Sunday night, July 26 at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Bryson Weds Davis Saturday

Mrs. Cora Bryson will become the bride of D. L. Davis Saturday, July 25, at 7 p. m. in a ceremony at the Henry House, with the Rev. J. Alton Morris, officiating.

COMPARE & PROFIT

The quart of milk above has the same food value as a pound of beef.

NOT only does MILK have that comparison in its favor but summer pasture for Cherokee County's healthy cows means added minerals for our children.

During this season of the year, the cows get more minerals from the earth.

The healthful minerals—so necessary for children's growth—find their way to the milk we drink.

For food value, plus health giving minerals, plus the summer drink that is tempting to the sluggish appetites, serve Cool MILK.
