Woman Talk

By EMILY COSTELLO

With another bang-up party at Duke's, a very charming dance and musical program, lots of nice summer guests and a few other items of just "woman talk", to tell, I hardly know where to lead off.

But I might as well turn back to Friday, the day, or rather the evening EDNA AND DUKE WHITLEY, the original host and hostess of Duke's Lodge entertained at the lodge at dinner and all the trimmings for some 40 guests.

After a sweltering day in town, it was wonderful to enjoy the coolness and a few raindrops and then pink sunset over the lake from the lodge porch. Dinner consisted of gobs of fried chicken, french fries, slaw, hot biscuits and some barbecue of the old school with a sauce delicious and hot. (Ask Bill Darnell if you don't believe me.)

Among the guests numbered I saw RUTH and HARVEY WILson, JOHN and KATHLEEN DAVIDSON, LOUISE and BUSTER BAYLESS, OPIE and HOBIE McKEEVER, H. A. and ROSEMOND MATTOX, MABEL MASSEY, H. A.'s sister, MARTINE McDONALD of Knoxville, MARTHA DREHER, LIZ GRAY, ARNOLD BEERKENS ANNE WARD, MARY FAY BRUMBY, BETSY and FRANCIS BOURNE, CATHERINE and HARRY BISHOP, JEAN and BOB WHITE, SHUG and BOB EASLEY, MARTHA NELL THUSS, SIS and BILL DARNELL, DAVE MOODY, ED and VIRGINIA HYDE, JACK and MONIKA DAVIS.

Also present were Lodge guests Dr. and Mrs. Hearin of Atlanta. Some items overheard or over-seen at the party JACK and MONIKA DAVIS are this week making a slightly hazardous and unplanned vacation trip to Philadelphia—old stomping grounds of Jack's medical study days. But in spite of the spur of the moment plans, they were looking forward to a fine time in the big city.

ARNOLD BEERKENS leaves the 24th (Monday) of this month for home in Holland. He flies from New York the 24th and will be at home for breakfast the morning of the 25th. But these modern means of transportation are nothing to marvel at in the shadow of a chief reason for the trip.

Arnold says in Holland he intends to become "officially engaged" to be married. Exciting, huh!

MARY FAY BRUMBY (Mrs. Ed) is now wearing a most becoming hair cut featuring Maimie Bangs. REGAL CLUB PROGRAM The Regal Club really did a trick when they arranged the perfectly lovely dance concert here Monday evening. Seven young artists performing in the Cherokee Indian drama "Unto These Hills", took their only night off to give Murphy folks a lovely evening of song and dance.

The dancers, in appropriate and colorful costumes, performed a varied program of dances from Irish songs to the Beguine, highlighted with a folk suite of the mountain folk. There was also a clever and fast moving little "By the Sea" number.

I think I enjoyed most the 13th Century troubadour number, though I'm also particularly fond of the folk song "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair"

The audience was good—though not a capacity crowd—and a most appreciative one. In addition to the Murphy group there were several Andrews folks in the number including STARR PULLIUM, GALUSHA PULLIUM, EVELYN, HILDRED and BETTY HEATON, and I think PAUL HEATON. Also MRS. S. J. GERNERT and MR. AND MRS. H. E. DAVIS.

BOXER FAMILY THE KAYE'S boxer is the proud mama of nine pups, sired by the HARRY MILLER'S boxer "BUTCH".

PICNIC AND PAGEANT SHIRLEY BATES, JIM WEBB, SUSIE MILLER and CHARLES SMITH took picnic supper in hand and traveled to Cherokee Saturday to view "Unto These Hills". I feel sure a good time was had by all the four attractive young folks.

BETTER, THANK YOU MRS. J. ALTON MORRIS, who was sick and in an Atlanta Hospital before most of us at home knew there was anything wrong, is now back at home and reported improving nicely. She returned from Atlanta Sunday.

WINTERS SUMMER GUESTS RHETT and MARY WINTERS and little EMILIE are enjoying a visit from Rhett's parents, MR. AND MRS. R. Y. WINTERS of Washington, D. C. The visitors arrived Monday and will be here until next Monday.

YOUNG AND ATTRACTIVE MRS. R. H. FOARD'S household is somewhat livelier for the visit
