Woman Talk

By EMILY COSTELLO

"Plenty of good old country grub," was the come-on George Crawford used in inviting folks to his annual supper at Unaka. And you can bet it got results.

The some 200 guests—with men outnumbering the ladies two to one—did really put away the food down at the pretty new Unaka Schoolhouse that night last week.

But fortunately, there was plenty of food to be put away . . . fried chicken, roast beef, mutton and pork - okra, beans, potatoes, potato salad, sandwiches, cold drinks coffee, and goodness knows what all else.

Wish I could tell you who all was there but some I didn't know and I don't remember all the ones I did know. But, just take my word for it, it was a wonderful supper and a great get-together for the folks at Unaka, as well as for all the other guests.

ANDERSONS ENTERTAIN

An eye witness told me that KATIE and O. L. ANDERSON's party at the Regal a week or so ago, was really quite lovely and enjoyable. Especially beautiful, I heard, was the buffet table and its appointments, uniquely centered with a dishpan arrangement of crisp raw vegetables and other hours d'oevers.

EDITH HOWARD (Mrs. Hugh) has returned home after a vacation of three weeks spent in Northern Minnesota. Hugh accompanied his wife to Miami, and then flew to Los An geles to visit his mother. I believe he has not returned yet.

BIG SOAP BOX

JANE AND DON RAMSEY and sons, just back from Akron, Ohio., say the National Soap Box Derby, which they witnessed, really gave them a thrill. Jane was particularly impressed with the royal way in which the little drivers were welcomed—police escorts and all.

BARN LOSS

W. FELIX HILL was saying his barn, completely full of feed, just put in, was a total loss after lightning struck and burned down the barn, blew out an electric pump and transformer. Hill lives up on Camp Creek.
