REV. AND MRS. WILLIAM FRANKLIN ELLIOTT She is the former Mrs. Ettie McCall. (Scout Photo)

Mrs. Ettie Hunt McCall of Murphy and the Rev. William Franklin Elliott of High Point were married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church here. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Asmond Maxwell, pastor.

The church was decorated with native greenery, floor baskets and urns of pink gladioli and seven-branched candelabra holding pink cathedral tapers which were lighted by Harry Webb Mattox and H. C. Bueck.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Duke Whitley, organist and Mrs. Glenn Bates and Neil Davidson, vocalists.

The bride entered the church with Mrs. R. C. Mattox, a close friend and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his son, W. B. Elliott of Hartsville, S. C. She wore a gown of grey chiffon and lace and a purple orchid. Mrs. Mattox wore a dress of navy sheer with a corsage of pink daisy chrysanthemums.

Duke Whitley, Cloe Moore, W. M. Fain and Hieronymus Bueck served as ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the assembly room of the church, where the bride and groom, the son, W. B. Elliott, the daughter, Mrs. R. M. Shannon, the granddaughter and grandson, Miss Rachel York Shannon and John Shannon of Charlotte, and the Rev. and Mrs. Asmond Maxwell received the large number of guests present.

Music for the reception was furnished by Mrs. Margaret Akin, Mrs. Tom Axley, Mrs. J. W. Davidson, pianists, and Miss Shannon pianist and violinist.

The table spread with a white linen cloth, was beautifully decorated with pink bows, silver candelabra holding tuberoses and the room was decorated with pink glads and other flowers.

Mrs. Willard Axley kept the
