IN MEMORIAM

My Dear Heavenly Father:

A year ago today you added another star to your Kingdom, his name is Edmond O. Staring, my father. I would like for you to deliver this little message to him for me.

Dear Daddy,

I miss you so much but happiness fills my heart when I think of all the wonderful times we had together, remember when I was a little tot and you would ride me to the store on your back with my feet in your back pockets, and then there was the time I had a little accident with the car and you were so understanding. Also I remember how happy we both were at my wedding and there are so many more things I could recall but someday when I meet you in Heaven we can recall our good times together.

Mother and the rest of the family miss you too and still remember you as being such a wonderful husband and father. May you brighten the Kingdom to Heaven as you did our lives and those of your friends.

Your Baby Girl,
"Evelyn"
