Miss Hayes' Grade Has Armistice Library Exhibit

Miss Kate Hayes fifth grade has prepared an exhibit in the Murphy School Library in observance of Armistice Day.

A large bronze bust of General "Black Jack" Pershing is in the center of the table, surrounded by toy soldiers, guns, tanks and other weapons of World War I.

On the bulletin boards are newspaper clippings of Nov. 11, 1918 announcing the signing of the Armistice and a large picture of the Unknown Soldiers tomb.

Pupils taking part in the talks are Linda Green, Judy May, Eugenia Davis, Shelby Garrett, Butch Hensley, Bobby King, Garland Kilby, and Sandres Leshler.

Mrs. Royna May Cobb's handwork class has an exhibit of globes, notebooks and a television set made by her 5th and 6th grade pupils.

Beth Bailey and Margaret Wilcox gave talks on globe making. Winston Craig and Jimmy Gibbs explained the notebooks. The television set was operated by Bobby Weaver, Glenda Mills and Jay Wilson.

Andrews Grammar School Observes Education Week

LAST WEEK

Andrews Elementary School is sponsoring an art exhibit in the corridor of the primary building this week for American Education Week.

The exhibit was sent from the Colonial Art Gallery and will be open to the public during the entire week, through Nov. 14.

An educational exhibit is on display at Elliott Hardware Store featuring work of the primary students.

The faculty committee which planned and arranged the display are Miss Tribby Gleen, Mrs. Blanch Garner, Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick, Mr. Annie McGuire.

Loyalty day was observed Tuesday morning at an assembly and included the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

It was announced that visitors are welcome at the school at all times, especially during education week.

DRIVE A WILLYS BEFORE YOU DECIDE

When the Aero Willys hit the market less than two years ago, it rendered conventional car-buying habits obsolete.

Its years-ahead styling, backed by its blending of automotive and aero engineering, when considered with its hereditary stamina and economy, made people sit up and take notice.

If you've been in a car-buying rut, you owe it to yourself to see and drive the Aero Willys before you decide.

May we show you why, today?
