"Don Pasquale" Here Today At School

Today at 1 p. m. and again at 8 p. m. the Grass Roots Opera Co., a troop of talented young singers, will present the Italian comic opera "Don Pasquale" at Murphy School. The performance, which is being sponsored by the Murphy High Senior Class, with proceeds to be used on the annual, is open to the public, with admission prices scaled at 50 cents for students and one dollar for adults.

The Grass Roots Company of North Carolina is the original group to bring opera to the masses. There are now several such groups in the country which seek to give vent to young talent while presenting the advantages of the opera to everyone—particularly school children.

"Don Pasquale" will be sung in English, and acted in period costumes against stage settings of the 1800's.

from 3 to 9 p. m.
