The dangers on the golf course are many, and a little hard luck can cause a lot of grief. A hook or slice can quite possibly injure a caddy or another player. Worse forms of hard luck perhaps, but at least hard luck that can be covered by insurance. For insurance keeps pace with practically every new form of property—every new form of activity—every new form of risk.

This agency can analyze your individual requirements—change your policies whenever necessary—give you prompt, expert advice on what to do in event of loss.
