

Miss Palmer Hostess At Christmas Party

Officers of the Evening Circle of the Women of the Presbyterian Church was installed at the annual Christmas meeting held Monday night in the home of Miss Hattie Palmer.

Officers installed were, Mrs. Kiften Craven, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Gray, secretary, and Miss Hattie Palmer, treasurer. Mrs. R. H. Foard was the installing officer. Mrs. J. Franklin Smith presented the Christmas program.

The home was decorated in keeping with Christmas as only "Dixie" and Hattie can do, with the usual beautifully decorated tree, with gifts piled at its base.

Following the program, refreshments were served and gifts were exchanged and general good time was had, by the large number of members present. Two new members were received.

Ivie-Brandon Wedding Plans Announced Today

BRIDE ENTERTAINED

Since the announcement of her engagement Miss Ivie has been honored at a number of social functions in Murphy.

Last week on Friday evening Mrs. John Donley was hostess at her home at a dinner party which assembled some 10 friends of the bride-elect. Dinner was served buffet style from a table appointed in a Christmas and bridal motif, with silvered magnolia leaves, Christmas balls and candles and centered with a bride and groom.

Guests presented the honoree with gifts in her crystal

On Saturday afternoon Miss Ivie was feted at a tea by Mrs. Walter Manney, Mrs. Edwin Hyde, Mrs. Lonzo Shields, Mrs. W. A. Hoover, Mrs. E. J. Darnell, and Mrs. Ruby Hill. The tea attended by some 150 guests, was held at the Regal Hotel. The dining room was decorated in bridal green and white, and the gifts to the bride-elect were displayed.

Miss Ivie wearing a light blue faille afternoon dress trimmed in crystal beads and rhinestones, received along with her mother, Mrs. Peyton G. Ivie.

This week on Tuesday night Mrs. Ruth Carringer entertained for the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower at her home. Some 15 guests were present and decorations and refreshments carried out a Christmas theme.

WHITE BIBLE

Wednesday evening the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church of which Miss Ivie is a member presented the bride-elect with a white Bible, which the bride will carry in her wedding next Tuesday. The presentation was made by Mrs. W. H. McKeever, Y. W. A. Counselor, at a ceremony immediately following the regular Wednesday evening prayer service at the church. The ceremony was one suggested by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, de-
