

NOTICE OF SERVICE OF PROCESS BY PUBLICATION
 NORTH CAROLINA GRAHAM COUNTY
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
 Artie Belle Smith by next friend Arvil Waldroup vs.

 William Paul Smith
TO WILLIAM PAUL SMITH:
 Take notice that a complaint seeking relief against you for annulment of the marriage between you and the above named infant plaintiff Artie Bell Smith, on the ground that said marriage was bigamous, you having a living wife at the time of said marriage from you had not been legally divorced. You are required to make defense to the said complaint not later than March 18, 1954, and upon your failure to do so the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief sought.

 This 16th day of January, 1954.
 W. A. Sherrill, Assistant Clerk
 28-4c Superior Court

Murphy School Clubs In Activities

Murphy High School clubs met last week, and at the same time several new clubs were organized.
PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB
 John A. Thompson is sponsor for the newly organized Photography Club, which will study amateur picture making and developing with emphasis on photography as a leisure time activity. Johnny Jones of the Asheville Citizen-Times Co. spent last Thursday here showing two films, and giving a camera demonstration and answering questions for the club. He also made a number of pictures to be used in the annual.
 Officers of the club are H. C. Bueck, president; Glenda Brandon, vice-president; Betty Lou Dockery, secretary-treasurer. A committee composed of Hedy West, Jean Reed and Nettie Dockery was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws.
BOOSTER CLUB
 The Booster Club, for cheerleaders, has as its officers, Judy Nichols, president; Nettie Sue Dockery, vice-president; Mary Lepscier, secretary-treasurer; Joan Schmitt, captain of cheering squad; Jo Garrett, co-captain; and Mrs Jean H. Middleton is sponsor.
FUTURE HOMEMAKERS
 The Future Homemakers of America Club, sponsored by Mrs. Dollie Smart, has as projects for the spring: improving the home economics laboratory, flower gardening, painting the picket fence. Members of the group are: Neva in front of the stone building and informal entertaining.

 The club has one business meeting and one social each month.

CLASS OFFICERS
 Gene Stiles, a senior at Murphy High School, was this week elected president of a newly formed group composed of class officers at the school.
 Stiles was president of the Junior Class last year.
 Every home room is represented in the group, and Mrs. Bob Bault, High School counselor, is in charge.

JOURNALISM CLUB
 The journalism club, made up of staff members of the school newspaper, "Boomerang", is said to be composed of "geniuses, crackpots and cross-eyed idiots" after a week long mad struggle to meet deadlines.
 The paper is published monthly and the staff is composed of Glenda Ivie Brandon, editor-in-chief; Hedy West, Fred Van Horn, associate editors; Adir Aronson, sports editor and reporters Billie Jane Rush, Betty Lou Rose, Katherine Zimmerman, Ann Maynor, Nettie Dockery, Betty Dockery, Jean Reed, Jo Garrett and Judy Nichols.
 Also business manager, Betty Jean Brown; typists, Virginia Akin, Winnie Little; circulation managers, H. C. Bueck, Harry Mattox; and faculty sponsor, Miss Martha Travis.
 The "boomerang" earned a number of high ratings at the annual editors' roundtable at WCC last fall.

Ends Battery Woes! NEW-REVOLUTIONARY DOUBLE EAGLE 125

by GOOD YEAR

- From top to bottom — inside and out, it is the finest auto battery ever built!
- Power to spare for faster starts — more staying power — long life!

57 Power Producing Plates—actually 479 square inches of more active material — 38 per cent more power source than in standard batteries of equal size.

More Starting Power—67 per cent more starting power than SAE specifies. Faster starts in frigid weather.

Greater Reserve—to carry the extra load of heater, lights, radio, and other car accessories.

Less Overcharge—new method produces smoother, denser grids of new lead alloy. 33 per cent more resistant to destructive overcharge, the number one battery killer.

New Strong Case—of durable Polystyrene to resist chipping, cracking and extreme temperature changes. New patented one piece Polystyrene cover is welded to container — eliminates soft-sealing compound.

Micro-Porous Rubber Separators—toughest, strongest, longest lasting separator available. The same specified for batteries used in submarines.

Dry Proof—needs water only 3 times a year in normal car use.

TRADE NOW FOR EXTRA POWER
 we have the new Double Eagle 125 for all group one cars.
