COULD WE
BY NORA COBB SPENCER
Could we but see God's matchless gifts
In tree, in bird, in flower,—
In rainbow gleam and starlight night.

In April's golden showers.
Could we but hear the whispering wind
Breathe messages divine,
And feel the joy of the happy brook
As it ripples in laughing rhyme—
Ah! Could we on the wings of thought

Reach heights unknown to man,
And glean from fields by angels wrought,
The precious pearls of thought divine,
With power that imparts

Unbounded love for all mankind.
A balm for wounded hearts—
Could we love our fellow man
With such unselfish love.
We might some day with angels stand
And praise with them above.
