

GRAHAM PERSONALS

Mrs. J. F. McGaha, Miss Freda Moore and Miss Edwards from Franklin visited Mrs. Grace Tatham and Patricia on Sunday.

Forrest Sawyer and Homer Cable from Waluska, Ga. visited relatives and friends over the week end.

Mrs. Marie C. Wright from Cleveland, Tenn. visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mack Calhoun for several days this past week.

Mrs. J. V. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Maxwell and Marty made a business trip to Asheville on Wednesday.

F. S. Griffin and Miss Belle Slaughter were in Murphy Tuesday evening to attend an executive board meeting of the Nantahala Regional Library.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ingram made a business trip to Murphy Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cory and son from Oak Ridge, Tenn. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cory over the week end.

Ione Eller remains critically ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy B. Millsaps.

C. F. Rice has returned to his home after receiving treatment in a Chattanooga, Tenn. hospital for the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Birmingham, certified public accountant, from Charlotte, paid an official visit to the county accountant's office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Medlin from Leicester, and Alken, S. C. visited his sister Mrs. Cain Lovin, who is critically ill, over the week end.

Bob Penland of Hayesville, who is connected with the N. C. Department of Revenue, was in Robbinsville Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Minnie Dula has returned to her home here after an extended visit to her sister in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. C. P. Hanranan, J. J. Snider and Rev. John T. Frazier, Jr. made a business trip to Knoxville, Tenn. Friday for the purpose of purchasing a piano for the Robbinsville Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McClure of Waynesville and Vaudney Massey, also of Waynesville, visited relatives, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Massey Sunday.

Mrs. Christine Corpening and Miss Martha Parks attended the social service conference in Raleigh April 11-13.

Miss Jane Lance accompanied by a college friend, was home for spring holidays last week from Winthrop, visiting her mother, Mrs. Beaufort Lance.

Mrs. Ed Dance, the former Catherine Eller, of Middlesboro, Ky., visited friends and relatives here last week end.

C. P. Sawyer, Jack Morphew, L. W. Wilson, Smith Howell, Hardy Wiggins and La Verne George went to Sylva Friday to the dedication of the new highway building and barbecue supper. Senatorial candidate Alton A. Lennon was guest speaker on the occasion.

Martha Ann Jones of Robbinsville has been named as one of eight students at Piedmont College, Demorest, Ga., who is on the dean's list for the winter quarter which was recently ended.

Arnold Rowland is home for a few weeks with his wife, Mrs. Helen Rowland. He has been employed at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Miss Della Mae Hibberts of Sult recently visited her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rowland.

Noah Shuler recently was injured while on a job with Shuler Construction Co. at Roanoke Rapids, N. C. He is in a Roanoke Rapids hospital where he will be for several more weeks, suffering a broken leg and other injuries. Mrs. Shuler has returned home after spending several days with her husband.

Mrs. Dixie Orr fell Sunday afternoon at home and suffered a broken arm. She makes her home here with her son and daughter-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Joe L. Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sherrill and small daughter have moved here to make their home. They formerly lived in Southport, N. C.

Miss Charlene Jones, who is employed with TVA in Sheffield, Ala. spent Easter week end at her home here.

Arthur Duggan, All his week end...

...

...

...

TEEN TOPICS

By Jo Deane Phillips

HILLBILLY SHOW

The Senior Class will sponsor a hillbilly show Friday, Ap. 23 at 8 p. m. in the Elementary School auditorium. Included in the show will be Hall Jenkins, guitar; Buster Brooms, fiddle; Vance Trull, banjo; Maurice McClung, mandolin; Maurice Millsaps, comedian; Christine Rodgers, guitar; and Christine Norris, piano.

Several cake walks will be held at different intervals during the show.

For an evening of fun and enjoyment, also helping your Senior Class see the Nation's Capital, be present. Admission prices 25c and 35c.

SUPERLATIVES ELECTED

The Senior Class of Robbinsville High has elected class superlatives as follows: Most likely to succeed Claudene Jones, Billy Buchanan.

Best all round, Lillie Mae Birchfield, Maurice McClung.

Most Studious, Eloise Phillips, John Brooks.

Romeo and Juliet, Patsy McClung, Edward Ingram.

Handsome, Vernon Burke.

Prettiest, Nellie Mae Stewart.

Class Primps, Jo Deane Phillips

Most athletic, Anna Sue Deyton, Richard Birchfield.

Laziest, June Turpin, Billy Walker.

Most absent-minded, Bonnell Stewart, Garland McGuire.

Song birds, Artie Waldroup, Frank James Jr.

Woman-hater, Jimmy Calhoun.

Man-hater, Ollie Mae Baker.

Class babies, Avis Ann Phillips, Edwin Taylor.

Class flirts, Maudie Sue Orr, Maurice Edwards.

Class monkeys, Mary Ann Anderson, Junior Carpenter.

Night hawks, Ruth Birchfield, Lincoln Long.

Friendliest, Emogene Jordan Perkins, Maurice Phillips.

BASEBALL

The Robbinsville Baseball Team played Bryson City there April 14. The Bryson City team defeated Robbinsville 5-0.

BLEACHERS BEGUN

Work has been started on the bleachers for the football stadium. They plan to have them completed around the first of May.

Patterson Is New Water Supt.

Douglas Patterson, 41, formerly employed with Maxon Construction Co., Oak Ridge, Tenn., has been employed as water superintendent by the Town of Robbinsville.

Patterson had 12 years experience as a plumber before his association with Maxon as a heavy duty mechanic.

He and his family are making their home in Robbinsville. He is a veteran of World War II.

Patterson replaces former superintendent Arnold Buchanan.

Mrs. Manchester Heads WSCS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, met in the home of Mrs. Cordell Russell, April 13 at 7:30, for its regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. C. A. Bales presided.

Mrs. Belle Martin led the devotional and Mrs. John T. Frazier presented the program, "who are the guilty?", with Mrs. John Childers and Mrs. F. S. Griffin taking part in the discussion. Mrs. Mary Taylor then finished a book review on "That the World May Know".

The nominating committee then presented a slate of officers for the coming year, which was unanimously elected by the Society and were as follows.

President, Mrs. Ed Manchester; Vice-president, Mrs. LaVerne Maxwell; and Secretary-Treas., Mrs. Grace Tatham.

Plans were made for a group to attend the district meeting to be held at Cherokee May 1.

At the close of the meeting the hosts served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

Those present included: Mrs. C. A. Bales, Mrs. John Childers, Mrs. W. F. Elzey, Mrs. John T. Frazier, Mrs. F. S. Griffin, Mrs. Belle Martin, Mrs. Grace Tatham and Mrs. Mary Taylor.

Birchfield Preaches At New Hope Church

The Rev. Gardner Birchfield will preach his regular appointment at New Hope Baptist Church Sunday, April 25 at 11 a. m. Sunday School is at 10 a. m.

Mr. Birchfield preaches at the church each second and fourth Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend the services.

44 File For Democrat And Republican Primaries May 29

Some 44 candidates had filed with the Graham County Board of elections before the filing books closed Saturday, Ap. 17. Voting on the candidates will take place in the Democratic and Republican primaries May 29 to determine nominees for the fall election.

Democrats filed are:

For coroner, Sam Sharpe, incumbent.

School board, from which three will be selected. Formerly the board was made up of five members; Harry Owens, Tapoco, Pearlle Lovin, Stecoah, C. C. Bateman, John Childers, all incumbent; also Oliver J. Stiles, Dr. Nettie Parrette and Wayne C. Marcus.

Sheriff, J. B. Crisp, incumbent,

Roy B. Kirkland, Lee W. Crawford and Ira Rogers.

Clerk of Court, Jack H. Tatham and Bright Postell.

Register of Deeds, Edna Jones Scroggs, incumbent, and Leonard Jordan.

County commissioners, Tony T. Ayers, Tapoco, Frank J. Howell, and R. O. Sherrill, incumbents; and George R. Long, D. B. Ghormley, W. N. George, D. V. Massey and Wayne H. Ayers.

Representative to the 1955 N. C. Legislature, Gwynn Denton and La Verne George.

Constable, Cheoah Township, Lee Davis and Luther Millsaps.

Republicans filed are:

Sheriff, Earl W. Shuler, Deimas Shuler.

Representative, T. M. Jenkins.

Register of Deeds, Arnold Jenkins.

Clerk of Court, Arthur Ford and W. M. Sherrill.

County Commissioners, W. J. Carringer, Dennis Sawyer, Tommy Crisp, Floyd Waldroup, Carmel Crisp, Stecoah and Marvin R. Grant.

County surveyor, W. T. Hill.

Coroner, J. D. Evans.

Constable, Cheoah Township, Will Orr.

Justice of the Peace, Stecoah Township, Dan Welch.

Jenkins Announces Judges And Registrars For 2 Years

Owens Named On School Committee

Harry Owens, member of the Graham County School Board, was named a member of the executive committee of the newly organized Western North Carolina School Board Association for a five county area.

Persons from Graham attending the meeting of the group April 14 in Bryson City were W. O. Woodard, principal at Stecoah; James Stanley, Robbinsville principal; Harry Owens, J. D. Stratton, C. C. Bateman and John Childers, members of the county school board; Ed Ingram, chairman of the Robbinsville committee, Harve Taylor, chairman of the Stecoah committee and K. S. Clem, county superintendent.

Registrars and judges were named for the 12 Graham County voting precincts last week when the new elections board organized.

W. W. Jenkins was re-elected chairman and C. P. Sawyer, secretary with Tillman Stewart also serving on the board.

The registrars and judges are, with their party initial following—either Democrat or Republican: East Robbinsville, Laverne George, registrar and Grace M. Tatham, D and Talmadge Sherrill, R.

In each list the registrar is listed first and the two judges second: West Robbinsville, John Carver, Cecil Hooper, D and Jack Odom R.

West Buffalo, Mrs. Vesta Martin, Oliver Martin, D and Ralph Adams R.

East Buffalo, Wilson Griffith, Ray Phillips, D and Dee Odom, R.

Rock Springs, Fannie Prince, Arthur Millsaps, D and Pearlle Orr, R.

Yellow Creek, Dee Millsaps, Jane Sherrill, D and Roy Garrison, R.

Tapoco, F. O. Colvard, D. G. Ledford, D and R. V. Williams, R.

Welch Cove, Mrs. Harry Brown, Opal Brendle, D and Elaine Holder, R.

Cheoah, Mrs. Zora Whatley, Nathan Garland, D and A. P. Deyton, R.

Steoah, Laughty Hyde, Paul Cable D and Hobart Holder, R.

Tuskegee, O. B. Lovin, Troy Jenkins, D and Tommie Gladden, R.

Japan, Harve Taylor, Fowler Pilkington, D and O. F. Bradshaw, R.

The following officers have been elected for the newly organized New Hope-Massey Branch Home Demonstration Club: Mrs. Blain Carver, president; Mrs. Frank Edwards, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Toomey, secretary; and Mrs. Leonard Davis, treasurer.

The name for the club has not been selected.

Mrs. Blain Carver Heads New HD Club

The following officers have been elected for the newly organized New Hope-Massey Branch Home Demonstration Club: Mrs. Blain Carver, president; Mrs. Frank Edwards, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Toomey, secretary; and Mrs. Leonard Davis, treasurer.

The name for the club has not been selected.

Band, Chorus Concert For Public Be Tonight

The Robbinsville School Band and Junior Chorus will present a program of music today, with a public concert at 7:30 tonight (Thursday) at the school.

The program will be played in the morning for the first six grades and in the afternoon for grades six through 12.

The program under the direction of Lewis Enloe, will include the following: Chorus program, I passed by Your Window, Taylor-Brake; O Lord Most Holy, ABT-Perry; Rendvous, A Letter; Always, Berlin; Lavender's Blue, Swift; and Blue Skies, Berlin.

The band program gets under way with the Honor Band March, Ernest Weber; followed by Stout Hearted Men, Romberg; the Overture from the Student Prince, Romberg; and Over the Waves, waltz, Rasas.

Also on the program are the American Patrol, descriptive, Meacham-Yoder; Trombone Toboggan, novelty, Webber and Military Escort, march, Bennett.

Mrs. Morphew, Miss Carter Are Hostesses

Mrs. R. B. Morphew and Miss Nellie Jo Carter were hostesses at the monthly meeting of the Smoky Mountain Home Economics Association at Nantahala Inn Monday last week.

Kenneth S. Clem gave a travelogue, with slides, of his stay in Alaska.

The Easter motif was used in favors and place cards and yellow and green were the color scheme. Some 29 persons were present.

Home Improvements Is 4-H Theme For Month

"Home improvements you can make" is the topic being used this month at Four-H clubs and a series of slides is being shown demonstrating simple and inexpensive, as well as more complicated things young folks can make for their homes.

The project books are also being distributed.

DEYTON EMPLOYED

Ray Deyton of Cheoah has been employed as transportation cost accountant clerk for the Graham County School system on a school year basis.

Direct assignments to any Army branch of service desired are being made on a limited basis to young men who enlist now, it was announced today by Sgt. Freeman, local Army and Air Force Recruiting Sgt.

Millsaps-Brooks Wedding Announced

Mrs. Flora Millsaps, daughter of C. B. Millsaps, became the bride of J. E. Brooks of Robbinsville, in a ceremony performed at her home Tuesday, Ap. 13. The Rev. Leslie Headrick officiated. The couple are at home in Robbinsville.

Direct Assignments Offered For A Time

Under a recent policy change, direct assignments to any Army branch of service desired are being made on a limited basis to young men who enlist now, it was announced today by Sgt. Freeman, local Army and Air Force Recruiting Sgt.

NOTICE

We have a limited quantity of one inch Hemlock boards dressed that we can offer you for prompt acceptance at $20.00 per M' our yard.

This lumber is suitable for sheeting, tobacco barns, and etc.

Bemis Hardwood Lumber Co.

Robbinsville, N. C.

THE LONE RANGER :: By Fran Striker

