O'DELL

Mr. and Mrs. Warren O'Dell of Knoxville, Tenn., announce the birth of a baby girl, Malron Elizabeth, on May 2. They have a son Rodney Warren now 20 months old. Mrs. O'Dell is the former Janie Palmer of Murphy.

son and family.
Mrs. W. M. Fain, Jr. of Atlanta is visiting relatives in Murphy.

Miss Carolyn Tommie Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Orr Foster, Sr. was married to John Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Lowe on Saturday, May 15, at the First Baptist Church, Opelika, Ala.

The bride is a niece of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Almond of Andrews. The Almonds were among out of town guests at the wedding.

The Rev. M. C. Mathison, pastor performed the double-ring ceremony.

The vows were exchanged before an altar banked with palms forming a background for seven-branched candelabra, entwined with fern and holding white cathedral tapers. Tall standards of white gladioli and Admiral Byrd daises completed church decorations.

Mrs. E. C. Stiles, organist, presented a program of nuptial music and also accompanied soloist, James Cooper.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length wedding gown of white antique shantung designed in princess style, featuring a yoke of imported Chantilly lace which extended into a panel down the length of the skirt.

The bodice was fashioned with a jewel neckline and long lace sleeves ending in petal points. Her fingertip veil was attached to a cap of matching lace, outlined with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias, stephanotis and English Ivy.

Miss Margaret Foster of Atlanta was her sister's maid of honor. The matron of honor was Mrs. Ervin Clay Pope of Birmingham, cousin of the bride, and the bride's sister, Miss Martha Foster, served as bridesmaid.

The bride's attendants wore identical, princess style dresses of sea foam green antique shantung which featured ballerina length skirts, sweetheart necklines and short cap sleeves. They wore matching shantung shoes and half halos fashioned of green shantung and lilies of the valley. They carried cascading bouquets of white summer daisies and ivy sprays.

Harry F. Lowe, Jr., of Auburn, Ala., was his brother's best man. Ushers were Glenn Robeson of Spartanburg, S. C., Judson Scott, Jr., Walter Dorsey and Malcolm Humphries of Opelika.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of slate grey shantung, a neutral straw hat and matching gloves. Her other accessories were black patent and she wore a corsage of purple and fuchsia carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of navy blue crepe. Her accessories were navy and white and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church parlors.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple are at home in Birmingham, Ala.

Top choice dessert in many a home is pie. It is easy to make a good pie in quick order when the filling is made from canned fruits.

Choice Cherry Pie

- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 No. 2 can water pack red sour pitted cherries
- 2 tablespoons butter, or margarine
- Pastry

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt in a saucepan. Add syrup drained from cherries and stir until smooth. Cook until thickened and clear, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add butter and cherries. Pour into an unbaked 8-inch pastry lined pan. Cover with top pastry. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) about 30 minutes. One 8-inch pie.

FRUIT PIE FAVORITES—If your choice is peach, apricot or crushed pineapple, use a No. 2 1/2 can of fruit. (If pineapple is not available in No. 2 1/2 can use 2 cups drained pineapple and 1 cup syrup.) Mix a cup of the syrup from the fruit with 2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca and 2 tablespoons sugar. Put the drained fruit in a 9-inch pastry lined pan and pour the syrup-tapioca over it. Dot with butter and cover with pastry. Bake in a hot oven (425°F.) about 40 minutes, or until browned.

New on the market are ready-to-use canned fruit pie fillings. Have you tried them yet?

New Chemical Kills Rootworm

Punctured, broken pods, stunted plants—that's the result of Southern corn rootworm attacks. But now farmers are going underground to destroy many pests with aldrin, a new insecticide.

Oil Barrell Still Taken On Bob Branch

An unusual whiskey still—made from a converted oil barrell, was destroyed on Bob Branch above Andrews week before last, Sheriff Luk Carver said.

Carver said he destroyed some 100 gallons of mash.

Miss Mallonee Has Circle 4 Meeting

Circle No. Four of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met with Miss Bessie Mallonee Tuesday afternoon, May 18, at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. R. C. Fuller gave the devotional and Miss Bertha Mayfield gave a talk on her recent tour to Europe.

Social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.
