

Miss Eleanor Enloe Is Wed In Charlotte

MRS. ELGIN F. WHITE
The former Miss Eleanor Enloe of Andrews and Charlotte.

Miss Eleanor Enloe of Charlotte and Andrews became the bride of Elgin F. White of Providence, R. I., on Sunday, Dec. 19 at Avondale Presbyterian Church, Charlotte.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan H. Enloe of Andrews and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Gross and the late Elgin F. White of Miami, Fla. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas W. McLean and the Rev. Conard C. Washam. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. J. A. Neely, organist, and Mrs. M. B. Wyche, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, C. Richard McKee of Davidson was best man. Ushers were R. Kenneth Lown and John Dillon of Charlotte and Jonathan Forno, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, of Greenville, S. C.

The bride's gown, an original by Mrs. Kate Dekle, grandmother of the bridegroom, was of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a portrait neckline embroidered in seed pearls. Tiny self-covered buttons fastened the gown at the back and wrists. The bouffant tulle skirt extended into a cotillion train.

Her double-tiered veil of illusion was attached to a pearl-encrusted shell of matching lace and taffeta. She carried a prayer book centered with a white orchid and surrounded with Stephanotis.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Patsy Washam of Besmer City. She wore a gown of white taffeta with a full skirt and outlined at the neck and shoulders with tulle. She carried a white fur muff to which a red poinsettia was fastened.

Following the ceremony the couple received friends in the annex of the church.

After a short wedding trip, the bride and bridegroom returned to the home of the bride's parents in Andrews for the Christmas holidays before going to Providence, R. I., where they will make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Montreat College and Duke University Divinity School. She was employed for two years as director of Christian education at Avondale Presbyterian Church and for the past year in the offices of the regional director of religious education for the Synod of North Carolina.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Florida. He was employed for four years as varsity gold coach and director of sports information at Davidson College. He is now serving in the same capacity at Brown University, Providence. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, a professional journalism fraternity and Sigma Chi fraternity.
