

Andrews Cubs Study Railroads

Andrews Cub Pack number Two held its regular pack meeting in the school auditorium Tuesday night, Jan. 25. The theme of the meeting was "Railroading".

Den Three with Mrs. C. O. Van Gorder as den mother and Jim Bristol as den chief, presented a skit entitled "Casey Jones", which was complete with songs and sound effects. The boys had constructed two cardboard locomotives and a length of track, and each cub scout in the den was dressed as a fireman, brakeman, or engineer.

Den 1, with Mrs. A. B. Chandler, Jr. as den mother, presented another railroading skit which dramatized the completion of the Union Pacific Railroad and the driving of the golden spike. Billy Blevins, den chief, was narrator.

The Cubmaster, C. O. Frazier, discussed the Cub Scout theme for the month of February, and plans were made for the pack to participate in Boy Scout Week.

The pack meeting for February will be held in the Andrews school lunchroom on Tuesday, February 22. Arrangements for a banquet are being made by the parents and the cubmaster.
