Mr. Frazier showed three films on safety in the home, at the school, and on the street, giving pertinent facts concerning hazards encountered by the children.

Mrs. Margaret C. Watry presided and recognized the past presidents of the local association. The Rev. Vitolds Gobins, pastor of the St. Andrews Lutheran Church brought the devotional message from the 91st Psalm.

A special feature of the program was a group of songs including "Last Mile of the way" by Mrs. McDowell, teacher of the Negro school, Mrs. Pauline Jones and Mrs. Margaret Miller.

Mrs. Watry discussed the advisability of closing the street to traffic leading through the school grounds and appointed the following committee to confer at an early date with the members of the city council: Supt. J. E. Ruffy, Sam Jones, Mrs. John Rodda, Mr. Leming of the Highway patrol, and Charles O. Frazier.
