

Konnaheetan Hear Welfare Worker

Dr. Ellen Winston, commissioner of the North Carolina State Board of Public Welfare, was guest speaker at the final meeting of the club-year of the Andrews Konnaheeta club held at Nantahala Inn Thursday evening.

Dr. Winston was introduced by Mrs. John S. Rodda, chairman of Welfare department of the club. In opening her talk on the Welfare Work of the state and Cherokee county, she praised the two State-wide projects. The clothing project, whereby 80,000 children had been helped; and the Help-A-Home project in which 500 families had participated on this new type of help sponsored by the womans organizations.

medical care and hospitalization. During the business period Mrs. Ruth Starr Pullum presided, at which time the club voted to join with the National Federation, in the Chain Telephone Calls project for sane driving over the 4th of July week end period.
