

State Vehicles Get "Slow Down" Stickers

drive state owned vehicles won't get away from the Motor Vehicles Department's admonition to "Slow Down and Live". It'll be with them in the form of a dashboard sticker placed near the speedometer of some 10,000 state owned cars and trucks.

In a joint announcement from Clifton Beckwith of the State Employees Association, it was declared that funds be made available from each organization to finance the project.

Scheduled to receive the "Slow Down and Live" treatment within the week are all highway trucks and passenger cars operated by all state agencies.

It was suggested the stickers be mounted with one corner directed at the speedometer numeral 55 so that when the speedometer needle approached 55 it would be in the line with the printed "Slow Down and Live."

CATHOLIC SEED CORN REVELATION

1. Where is God's Revelation to man contained? God's Revelation is contained in the Bible and in Tradition.
2. What is the Bible? The Bible, or the Holy Scriptures, is a collection of Books all written under the inspiration of God.
3. Are Catholics permitted to read the Bible? Catholics are permitted, and are encouraged to read the Bible.
4. Does the Bible contain all that God has revealed? No, the Bible itself states that it does not contain all that God has revealed. "Many other signs also did Jesus in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. — There are also many other things which Jesus did, which, they were written, every one, the world itself, I think, would not be able to contain the books that should be written" (St. John xx, 30; xxi, 25).
5. Where else, then, is God's Revelation contained? It is contained in Tradition, i. e., in the living spoken word of Christ and His Apostles, which was not written down by them. "Having more things to write unto you, I would not by paper and ink, for I hope that I shall be with you and speak face to face" (2 John i, 12). "Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which you have learned whether by word or by our epistle" (2 Thess. ii, 11).
6. Where is this Tradition to be found? This Tradition is to be found chiefly in the writings of the Fathers of Church of the first centuries of Christianity, in the decrees of Church Councils and in the ceremonial of the Church. St. Basil who lived in the fourth century wrote: "We have some articles of faith from the Holy Scriptures, others we received by the tradition of the Apostles, — which the Apostles preached, the Fathers believed, and the Martyrs confirmed with their blood" (Treatise on the Holy Spirit, ii, 27). Tips Told For Picnic Eggs

There's a big difference between a hard-boiled egg and a hard cooked one. Even the name implies the distinction. According to Virginia Wilson, State College extension nutritionist, a hard-boiled egg is tough and leathery simply because it was cooked too long and too hard. A hard cooked egg, on the other hand, is tender and smooth.

Now that summer is here, it's picnic weather which means that it's hard-cooked egg weather. The easiest way to prepare, carry and keep eggs is in the shell. Then, at mealtime, they're shelled and eaten. Hard-cooked eggs keep for hours without refrigeration in an unbroken shell, thanks to the protection of both the shell and the papery lining underneath.

But hard-cooked eggs out of the shell — stuffed, or in salads and sandwiches — must be kept cold to be safe against soilage, according to Miss Wilson. In just a few hours in a warm picnic basket or out on a picnic table on a warm day, stuffed eggs or egg salads may become spooge hazards. Safety calls for keeping them cold from the time they're prepared until they're eaten.

What's the best kind of egg to buy for hard-cooking? Those of top quality (grades AA or A) are best because of their delicate flavor. They're also good for stuffing because they have well centered yolks. If you want eggs for sandwich filling or for salads, select D eggs which are entirely suitable and cost less than the higher grades.

Look 4 Doors and no center posts!

It's the new kind of hardtop—The 4-Door Riviera!

You drop the side windows down on this airy beauty of a Buick with the solid steel roof—and it's as wide open as a Convertible, with no center posts to mar your view. That's what makes it a hardtop. But what makes it a very special kind of hardtop is the fact that it has four doors instead of two. Cheers? Brother! — they're really rolling out for Buick's 4-Door Riviera! Now, you see, you can have the tremendously popular styling of a true hardtop combined with the room, comfort and full convenience of a 4-door Sedan. And it took a completely new kind of body design to come up with this marvel—a new kind of body built to wholly new structural principles. So it looks like Buick's done it again—because the 4-Door Riviera is a sweeping sensation across the nation. It's rolling off the assembly lines in volume numbers to meet the demand — in the high-powered CENTURY Series, and in the bedrock-priced SPECIAL Series, and in the And each one is all Buick—with record-high V8 power, the level steadiness of all-coil-springing, the extra roominess of a full-size Buick Sedan—and, most certainly, with the instantaneous getaway response and bettered gas mileage of Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* Come in for a look at the brand-new kind of hardtop—the 4-Door Riviera. You'll find it priced at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model—and a buy too thrilling to pass up. *Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
