Andrews OES Has Birthday Party

At the last regular meeting in June, Andrews Chapter 15, O. E. S. celebrated its 33rd birthday anniversary, in the Masonic Hall.

After the business session the program committee took charge. Mrs. Hassie Butler presided in the East.

The chapter room was decorated with roses and other garden flowers. A rose covered white fence with a gate was placed before the East. The program was entitled "Garden of Remembrance".

Charter members were escorted through the gate into the "Garden of Remembrance" to seats of honor in the East, as "I Love You Truly" was sung.

They were welcomed by Mrs. Butler. A corsage of roses was presented to each of them. Charter members were: Mrs. Rebecca Wheeler, Mrs. Addie Adams, Mrs. Zena Forsyth, Mrs. Mary Swan, Zala Adams, Mrs. Clara Sherrill another charter member was not present.

As the choir sang "Moonlight and Roses" Mrs. Swan entered with a scroll, from which she read the history of the chapter. A garland of roses was placed on the altar by the chaplain, Mrs. Mabel Rayburn, after which "In the Garden" was sung.

The past matrons and past patrons were then escorted through the garden gate by Mrs. Polly McGuire, past junior matrons as "Long, Long Ago" was played. A red rose was presented to each of them by two flower girls, Mrs. June Brooks and Mrs. Sara Pullium.

The American flag was carried though the garden gate by associate patron, Richard Conley, as "God Bless America" was sung.

During the social hour which followed cake and punch was served. The birthday cake was decorated with the Eastern Star emblem in the emblematic colors.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Ruth C. Pullium, Miss Bartha McGuire, Mrs. Leila Thomason, Mrs. Carrie Wamock and Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick.

Mrs. Pearson Heard By Garden Club Members Here

MRS. PEARSON
 Mrs. A. A. Pearson of Fletcher last week spoke on flower arrangements to some 40 members of the Murphy Garden Club and Cherokee Rose Garden Club here Thursday. Using flowers from her own garden, den, Mrs. Pearson made several arrangements pointing out use of line, depth, balance, and color.

She pointed out the qualities that flower show judges like and dislike in some arrangements.

Hostesses, Mrs. B. W. Whitfield, Mrs. F. V. Taylor, Mrs. W. D. Townson, Jr. and Mrs. W. E. Howell served sandwiches and Cokes from a table centered with an arrangement of pink, white and red poppies.

Mrs. Pearson was accompanied to Murphy by her husband, Dr. Pearson. Mrs. Pearson is district president of the Garden Club of N. C. Inc.

BETTER GROWING
 In the larger National Forest timber sales in North Carolina, about 12% of the income is used to put the sale areas in better growing condition by poisoning cull and low grade trees and occasionally interplanting. 8,093 acres in 50 sale areas were treated in 1954.

Miss Neal Feted At Andrews Shower

Miss Jane Gay Neal, bride elect of Cecil Frazier was feted on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl West when the members of the Winsome class of the First Baptist church entertained with a miscellaneous shower.

The tea table was covered with a white linen cloth centered with an arrangement of gypsophila, pastel colors of larkspur, and asters. A miniature church with bride and groom figurines were placed on the end of the table.

The members signed their names in textile paints on an attractive organdy tea apron and presented it to the honoree. Other bridal games featured the entertainment. The gifts were suspended from two large wedding bells.

The hostess was assisted in serving punch and cake by Mrs. James Harris, teacher of the class, and Miss Shelby Jean Reese. Mrs. West is superintendent of the Young Peoples Department of the Sunday School.

Dockery, Ashe Fined Unemployment Cases

Ernest A. Dockery, Rt. 3, Murphy, was found guilty of knowingly making a false statement to obtain Unemployment Insurance benefits without being entitled thereto, Jack Burrus, head of the local employment office said this week.

Burrus said the claimant was fined $20 and court costs of $10.50. He will also be required to refund the commission $33 which was paid to him as Unemployment Insurance and will not be entitled to receive benefits for the remainder of the benefit year.

Meanwhile, Clayton T. Ashe, Rt. 1, Hayesville, was found guilty of knowingly withholding a material fact to obtain unemployment insurance benefits without being entitled thereto.

Ashe was fined $20 and court costs of $6.85. He will not be entitled to benefits with respect to weeks of unemployment for one year beginning April 12, 1935.
