Merk Clowns In Chattanooga Events

H. L. Merk of Murphy last week appeared on an afternoon show over Channel 12, Chattanooga, TN. In his shrine clown suit, Merk was "Dr. Quack" on the program.

On Saturday night, Merk, and other Shrine clowns were in the ceremonies at which Miss Chattanooga was crowned during the intermission at the Chattanooga-Birmingham baseball game.

Merk again clowned Monday night at the special Shrine Bowl game in Chattanooga. Mr. Merk's clown name is "Hi-Lo".

Hear Garden Club President

Miss Frances Cover, president of the Valley River Garden Club, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Andrews Lions Club last week in the Shell Dining Room.

Miss Cover discussed garden therapy in connection with the work being done for the blind, including the fact that the National Garden Book and other gardening books have been translated into Braille.

She outlined the history of the National Federation of Garden Clubs and its local connection.

SEES FOR PEACE

Miss Cover said some 17½ tons of vegetable and flower seeds were packaged in groups of 13 garden units, enough to supply a family of five and were sent to Europe following World War II by the National Federation of Garden Clubs.

Each contained the message: "May peace grow with these seeds and bring to us all food and friendship."

Mark Elliott presented the past president's pin to A. B. Chandler, Jr. and announced the following committee chairmen who work with the vice-presidents: agriculture, William P. Walker; broom sale, Herbert Sheidy; community betterment, L. L. Love; finance, Herbert Sheidy; publicity, C. Burke Wood; constitution and by-laws and Lions information, Herman Brauer.

Also, attendance, Dr. C. O. Van Gorder; citizenship and patriotism the Rev. Vitolds Gobins; education, Dr. F. E. Blalock; safety, G. E. Baldwin; health and welfare; Dr. F. E. Blalock; convention, Herman Brauer; program and entertainment, Dr. Van Gorder; United Nations, Mr. Gobins; boys and girls, Amos W. Harris; civic improvement, Clifford Hulls; great er, W. H. Fuller; membership, A. B. Chandler, Jr.; white cane, William Walker; bulletin, Mr. Gobins; and sight conservation and blind, Herman Brauer.

Harold Gee announced the next directors meeting to be held at the home of Amos Harris at Nantahala.
