

GREENWOOD REUNION
More than 50 members of the Greenwood family attended the 14th annual Greenwood reunion held Sunday in that Andrews City Park.

The Rev. George Vincent, supply pastor of the Free Methodist Church, gave the invocation preceding the picnic dinner served on long tables in the Park. Members of the family from adjoining counties were in attendance.

Miss Evelyn Gibson Weds Kenneth Beal Farmer In S.C. August 6

Miss Evelyn Gibson became the bride of Kenneth Beal Farmer on Saturday, Aug. 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the Centenary Baptist Church of Centenary, S. C. The Rev. J. G. Newton, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. David Franklin Gibson and the late Mr. Gibson of Centenary. Mr. Farmer is the son of Glenn Farmer of Elizabethton, Tenn., and the late Mrs. Hattie Hayes Farmer of Tomolia. He is the nephew of the Misses Kate and Lella Hayes with whom he has made his home since childhood.

THE CHURCH

The church was decorated in green and white. Gladioli and pom poms were used in altar baskets amidst palms and ferns. Candelabra holding cathedral tapers flanked either side of the altar. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. G. C. Wallace of Marion, S. C., organist, and Robert Mace of Gresham, C., soloist, furnished the wedding music. James C. King of Spartanburg, S. C., was best man. Usher-grooms men were Matthew B. Gibson of Centenary, brother of the bride; David Stuckey of Hemingway, S. C., nephew of the bride; Al Newton of Clemson, S. C., and Wallace Reed of Spartanburg.

BRIDE'S ATTENDANT

Mrs. Marion W. Davis III of Marion, S. C., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length rouge crystalettte dress featuring a pointed tiered overskirt over nylon net and taffeta with matching stole. She carried a crescent of white asters.

Junior bridesmaids were Misses Libby Rose Stuckey of Hemingway, niece of the bride; and Martha Collier of Carolina Beach, cousin of the bride. Misses Mary Farmer of Asheville, sister of the bridegroom, Betty Lou Mace, Shirley Jenkins and Betty M. Widner, all of Centenary, were bridesmaids. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

MRS. KENNETH BEAL FARMER

They wore rouge nylon net dresses over taffeta with fitted bodices and ruffled berthas and carried white baskets of rose petals.

BRIDE'S DRESS

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Ernest S. Gibson of Centenary, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over nylon net and bridal satin. It was designed with basque bodice pointed at the waistline and buttoned down the back with tiny lace buttons; nylon tulle yoke finished with appliques of lace, and long fitted sleeves ending in Calla points over the hands.

The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion and lace was attached to a shell cap of sheer tulle outlined with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

The bride's mother wore an apricot chiffon dress with jeweled neckline. Her corsage was of white asters.

Miss Kate Hayes wore a mauve lace and chiffon dress with a corsage of white asters and Miss Lella Hayes wore a gown of powder blue lace with a corsage of asters.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception on the lawn of her home, beautifully lighted for the occasion. Large baskets of white gladioli and mums were placed at intervals against the shrubbery.

The dining room was decorated in green and white with the bride's table overlaid with an imported cutwork cloth and centered with a triple tiered wedding cake, decorated with wedding bells, lilies of the valley and swan and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was flanked by tapers in silver candelabra.

Throughout the reception rooms arrangements of asters and roses were used. Some 200 guests called at the reception.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a pure silk brown Italian tweed suit with white weskit. She wore an original jeweled white felt hat, white gloves and brown reptile bag and shoes. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

SCHOOLS

The bride attended Anderson College, Anderson, S. C., and graduated from Limestone College, Gafney, S. C., with a B. S. degree.

Miss Lime Weds Hyde In Canton

Miss Jessie Carolyn Lime, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Clayton Lime of Canton, became the bride of Lt. (J.G.) Olin V. Hyde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olin V. Hyde Sr. of Syracuse, N. Y., at 4 p. m. Saturday at the Canton Presbyterian Church.

The Limes formerly lived in Andrews for some time when the Rev. Mr. Lime was pastor of the Andrews Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Lime performed the ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by L. B. Nichols of Andrews.

Miss Betty Heaton of Andrews, was vocalist, and also assisted at the reception which was held at the manse following the ceremony.

The couple will be at home at 602 Delashmutt Circle, Falls Church, Va.
