4 Found Guilty In Unemployment Cases Here

Four area men recently have been found guilty in unemployment cases, Jack Burris, head of the local employment office said this week.

The four were: Robert J. Mason of Topton, found guilty of knowingly withholding a material fact to obtain unemployment insurance benefits without being entitled thereto.

Mason was charged $20 fine and suspended on payment of court costs of $9.50 and to refund the ESC the sum of $96. He will not be entitled to receive any benefits with respect to weeks of unemployment during the remainder of the year on and after Sept. 29, 1954.

Tom Marshall Davis, Hayesville, found guilty of knowingly making a false statement to obtain veterans unemployment insurance benefits without being entitled thereto. Fined $20, suspended on payment of court costs of $6.85. Not entitled to receive any benefits for weeks of unemployment for one year from June 16, 1955.

Charles Lee Crawford, Andrews, found guilty of knowingly making a false statement to obtain Veterans unemployment compensation benefits without being entitled thereto. Not entitled to receive any benefits for weeks of unemployment during the remainder of the year since Nov. 3, 1954. Pay court costs and repay the ESC money wrongfully drawn in the amount of $173.

James T. Woods, Aquone, found guilty of knowingly withholding a material fact to obtain unemployment insurance benefits without being entitled thereto. Charged $20 court costs of $9.50 and refund fine, suspended on payment to ESC all benefits received during period of ineligibility. Not entitled to receive any benefit for weeks of unemployment during the remainder of year after Feb. 23, 1955.

BRASSTOWN REVIVAL
A series of revival services will start Sunday, Sept. 4, at Maggie Chapel Church, Brasstown. Preachers for the series are the Rev. Fred Lunsford and Ham Coffey.

Gobins Baby Baptised

Baptismal services for Marina Gobins infant daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Vitold Gobins were held Sunday at 7:15 p. m. at St. Andrews Lutheran church.

The Rev. John G. Fleck, D.D. pastor of Parkside Lutheran church Buffalo, N. Y., officiated. God-parents were: Mrs. John G. Fleck and god-father was James W. Ibberson.

Mrs. Wood Honored At Andrews Shower

Mrs. Lynn Wood was honored with a miscellaneous stork shower Thursday evening by Mrs. Robert Crawford and Mrs. Goldman Roper at the home of Mrs. Crawford's mother, Mrs. Roy Williams.

After the opening of the gifts the hostesses served cookies, nuts and punch. There were 30 guests present for the occasion.

WINS CONTEST

A winning limerick has made O. Anderson of Murphy, eligible for three grand prize awards in the $400,000 Sealy Posturepedic Contest, Sealy, Inc., of Chicago announced today. The winner, who entered through Sossamon Furniture Co., Murphy, receives a Sealy Posturepedic Mattress, and contest officials will now consider the entry for one of three grand national awards.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all our friends for their kindness and sympathy through the sudden death of my husband, A. G. Ledford. May the Good Lord bless and keep you.
