Whitaker, Butler Reach High Degree In Masons

W. D. WHITAKER

W. D. Whitaker and Gordon Butler of Andrews last week spent four days in Asheville taking additional degrees in Masonry.

Whitaker was elected president of the class of 28 Western North Carolinians who were taking the fourth through the 32nd degrees of the Scottish Rite. They made up the Thomas Vernon 32 Degree Memorial Class Scottish Rite Bodies of the Valley of Asheville.

Meanwhile Butler was chosen as class orator and delivered the class address at the annual banquet in the Masonic Temple on

GORDON BUTLER

Broadway in Asheville.

Both men have been active in Blue Lodge work for a number of years and have already taken the York Rite degree and are Shriner members of the Oasis Temple in Charlotte. They are the only two members of the class to have taken the York Rite and belong to the Shriners.

At the completion of ceremonies a banquet was held at which members of the consistory were present. Approximately 300 Masons were present for the occasion.

County History Be Sponsored By County And Towns

Mrs. C. S. Freel of Andrews last week was named county historian at a meeting of the Cherokee County Commissioners.

The commissioners further voted to sponsor the History of Cherokee County, written by Mrs. Freel.

Meanwhile, town councilmen of both the towns of Andrews and Murphy will also sponsor the history which will go to press at an early date.

The three groups sponsoring the book will have the history on sale in the three offices as soon as they are off the press, it was announced.

$300 Range Be Given Away At New Smoky Mt. Gas Co.

Drawing for a free door prize of a $300 kitchen range will take place at the grand opening of the new home of Smoky Mountain Gas Co. here Saturday, Oct. 15.

The range will be either gas or electric depending on the winner's choice.

The grand opening will last from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. at the company's new building on the Andrews highway, just beyond the Tastee Freez building.

The Smoky Mountain Gas Co. and Amusement Co., owned by C. L. Alverson of Murphy, formerly was located on Tennessee St. in a building owned by E. E. Stiles.

Dog Tax Goes Into Effect Here; J. L. Hall Appointed Warden

Cherokee County this month goes under the state-wide dog tax law after the 1933 State Legislature voted for the county to be included in the law.

Meanwhile, the same bill appointed J. L. Hall as county dog warden. Mr. Hall will assume his duties in the near future, it was announced.

The tax, which became due on October 3, at the office of the county accountant in the courthouse, is $2 per year on open female dogs of six months or older. The annual tax on all other dogs six months or older, is $1.

The county was included in the dog tax law after a number of individuals and civic clubs asked the County Commissioners to provide protection here against rabid dogs.

THEY'RE NEVER RAINED OUT

Murphy Garden Club Sponsor Nat'l. Flower Judge In Talk

The Murphy Garden Club will sponsor a flower arrangements lecture and demonstration by Mrs. E. B. Worsham of Atlanta, Ga., on Thursday, Oct. 27, in the basement of the First Methodist Church.

A tea hour will be held from 3-3:30 p. m. and the lecture will begin at 3:30.

Mrs. Worsham is a nationally accredited flower show judge and is a charter member of the Flower Arrangers Club of Georgia, and serves as president of that organization.

She is co-author of "Artistry In Arrangements", with three volumes of the book having been published. She is a member of the North Georgia Judge's Council and has been an instructor on flower arranging since 1946.

In her demonstration here Mrs. Worsham will use largely home grown plants; material as well as roadside and all other kinds of wild materials.

She said she feels it "a challenge to create beauty and distinction by using common place materials."

FIRST A GROWER

Mrs. Worsham's home is in the country and she grows the many varieties of materials to choose from in arranging. She says she "was a grower before learning to arrange, so naturally I love horticulture."

She is also interested in antiques and collecting them is one of her hobbies.

Mrs. Worsham is active in Sunday School and church work at Druid Hills Baptist Church of which she is a member. Dr. Louis D. Newton is pastor of that church.

LOCAL COMMITTEE

The local committee in charge of arrangements for the lecture are Mrs. John S. Smith, program chairman, and Mrs. John H. Baughman, Mrs. T. A. Case and Mrs. B. W. Whitfield.

Everyone is invited to attend the tea hour, lecture and demonstration. Tickets are now on sale for $1 and may be obtained from any member of the Murphy Garden Club.

Lime To Preach In Andrews Sunday

The Rev. Clayton Lime, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Canton, will preach at the Andrews Presbyterian church next Sunday, Oct. 16, at the 11 a. m. service.

Rev. Lime was former pastor of the Andrews church for a number of years and the public is invited to attend this service.

High School Paper, Annual, Win Awards

Murphy High School publications last week took several awards at the High School Editors Roundtable at Western Carolina College, Cullowhee. The meeting was sponsored by the college and the Asheville Citizens-Times Co.

The Murphy school paper, "Boomerang", won second place among mimeographed newspapers in large schools. Their annual, the "Kannushega" took fifth place among large schools.

Meanwhile H. C. Bueck won eight ribbons in photography, as follows: two blue ribbons; three red ribbons; two yellow ribbons; and one lavender (medalist award).

Big Gospel Concert Set Here Tonight

The famous Chuck Wagon Gang, gospel singers from Fort Worth, Texas, will be presented in a gospel concert here today, Thursday, Oct. 13, at 8 p. m.

Fall Crafts Course Starts Next Week

The opening session for the Folk School fall craft course will be held Monday, Oct. 17, with classes beginning at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Reduced tuition is offered as usual to local people who commute.

The session will last two weeks. Anyone interested should call or write Mrs. Muriel Martin at the Folk School, Brasstown.

Hornbuckles Feted At Church Supper

Plans were made for the new year at the meeting of the Young Adult class of the Andrews First Methodist church following a potluck dinner held Thursday in the recreation room of the church.

An electric percolator was presented to the Rev. and Mrs. James Hornbuckle who are leaving this week for his new pastorate in Winston Salem. S. J. Gernert was master of ceremonies. There were 30 present.

Andrews, Swain Battle To 6-6 Tie

BY AHS JOURNALISM CLASS

The rain-soaked fans saw their team plow through a muddy field last Friday night in Bryson City to hold Swain to a 6-6 tie.

Previous to Friday's game, Andrews, on top of the Smoky Mountain Conference, had a five win, no loss record. Swain had four wins and no losses.

Andrews kicked and from then on, it was an exchange of fumbles as each time the ball was almost too slick to be handled. The jerseys were so muddy at times it was impossible to identify the players.

However, the mud and rain did not keep the teams from playing good ball. The field which was just like one large mud pie could not stop either team from gaining some yardage.

The line for both teams played well, but Andrews seemed to gain more rushing yardage than Swain.

Andrews fullback Dwain Winfrey broke loose in the first quarter to rush for a 44-yard gain. Jimmy Holland also did a nice 20-yard jaunt for the 'Cats. The quarter ended with Andrews on the Swain six.

The drive was cut short, however, and in the second quarter, neither team could make any serious threats. Holland tried for a field goal without success. Both teams seemed to hold fast to the opinion that the other should not score.

The third quarter was just a pull and a push as each team exchanged fumbles and all players kept slipping up in the mud. A Swain drive was cut short on the Andrews 20 when the Wildcats took possession of the ball on downs.

In the fourth period, each team decided it was time to score. Andrews scored first, with Winfrey going over for the score after a sustained drive. The try for conversion failed.

Swain scored in the last two minutes when Stub Hyde went 60 yards and scored standing up. Their try for the extra point also failed, making the score 6-6.

Holland took advantage of the last 46 seconds and went for a 30-yard dash. A Swain penalty put the ball on the Swain 15, but time ran out before the 'Cats could reach pay dirt.

Both teams are still undefeated. Andrews has only two more conference games remaining, while Swain has five.

Tomorrow at 8 p. m. the Wildcats will travel to Sylva for an encounter with the Hurricanes.
