Konnaheeta Club Has Meeting

The Konnaheeta club met Thursday night at Nantahala Inn. Dr. Lester E. Haentzschel, Director Mental Hygiene clinic of Asheville and Buncombe county was guest speaker, giving an informative talk in the field of Mental Health.

Dr. Haentzschel, a native of Cooper, who practiced in the New England States prior to his coming to Asheville, first told about his type of clinic, how staffed, how it is expanding, the need for more facilities for hospitalization and the procedure of psychotherapy.

He also stated "we have a good State program and a Governor who is sympathetic to our problem, we are united in an endeavor to promote understanding and a public awareness of the problems and what can be done."

SURPRISE FEATURE
Immediately following the program a floor show was presented by Southern Railway Hill-Billy

Band composed of officers and employees of the Southern Division, who were holding a two weeks convention at the Inn and their Lodge nearby. Numbers presented included "I Don't Love Nobody", "Old Rattler", "Clog Dancing", "Mountain Ballads", "This Old House", "Mansions in the Sky," and "Sixteen Tons" by the Superintendent of the Terminal in Knoxville, Tenn. The band was warmly received and after a number of encores were extended an invitation for a return engagement.

During the business session, Mrs. Ruth Star Pullum, president announced the following benefits; Parcel Post Sale, Doll and Train Ticket sale, and Talent Show; also announced the Bake and Buy cake sale to be held Friday and Saturday October 26 and 27, at the Nantahala Power and Light Company's office on Main Street.

Mrs. D. A. Dewar brought the devotions. Next meeting will be held as covered dish dinner in the School cafeteria.

Dr. Haentzschel was presented by the Community Affairs committee with Mrs. Olen Stratton as chairman, Mrs. A. B. Chandler, Jr., co-chairman, Mrs. W. W. Ashe, Mrs. Edwin Bristol, Mrs. Louise McFalls Zimmerman, Mrs. Charles Delaney and Mrs. John Slagle.

Halloween Party At Sweetwater

On Halloween, October 31, from seven until nine p.m., there will be a Halloween Party in the Sweetwater Community Building. It is being sponsored by a few of the ladies of the community.

There will be games for all, young and old. Everyone is invited. Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Name The Store

A name will be selected at the close of business on Saturday, November 3 for Glenn Hembree's new store located below Coward's. Last week's ad stated that there would be a drawing, this is incorrect. The winner of the name selected will be announced in the November 8 edition of the Scout.
