And by the way - what is the peace that passeth all understanding? Why of course you non-Russell of Route 2 Murphy; H. A. phy; J. C.. Hembree of Route 1 Because you haven't found that peace in your knowledge of His Barton of Murphy.

Barton of Murphy.

Because you haven't found that peace in your knowledge of His ever abiding everlasting love, His ever abiding care, and most of all, His ever presence in your every day life. Earl Munger of Topton; F. T. My, what peace comes to you when Hampton of Route 2 Murphy; T. you hear Him say, "Fear not, for L. Martin of Route 2 Murphy; Sam lo', I am with you always, even

That word fear brings to mind another point. Christians have no fear, for the passage, "Lo, I am with you always" includes times of fear. How often we need that peace, Ray Matheson of Andrews; C. A. and what peace it is to hear a still Physician, go with you into surgery; or when the cold terrifying figure of death is looking you in the face; to hear Him say, "Even unto death".

> Yes, non-christians, this is the peace that passeth all understanding. And to receive this peace "The Prince of Peace" demands so little! Its free! It can come to you, but you must ask for it.
