Supt. J. E. Rufty gave the following breakdown of the figure: high school, 300; Andrews Elementary, 744; Marble, 140, and Andrews Elementary No. 1, 10.

Mr. Rufty said improvements are being made at the athletic field. He said school officials however, were very much disappointed when lights were checked before the football season opened and 42 of the units were out.

Costs of replacing the units ran approximately $200. He said there was no indication that the lights were storm damaged.

The superintendent said all schools in the Andrews unit have gotten off to a good start. He said they are looking forward to a very successful year.

Mr. Rufty asserted that it is difficult for any organization to function successfully without the full cooperation of all concerned.

"We would like to take this opportunity to invite the parents to visit the schools and if you have questions concerning the schools and their operation we will be happy to discuss it with you", he stated.

He added, "We know that the parents are interested in the welfare of the children. Teachers are also interested in the progress and success of every child in school. This success can best be accomplished by the whole-hearted cooperation of students, parents and teachers".

Scout Round-Up Slated For This Fall

Dr. Samuel Robinson of Asheville, commissioner for the Daniel Boone Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, has announced that a Baden-Powell Round-Up will be conducted this fall in all 14 counties of the council area.

The Round-Up, designed to offer the Scouting program to many additional boys in Western North Carolina, will be conducted under the personal leadership of the 7 district commissioners and will be held in connection with Baden-Powell Round-Ups in the other 36 Boy Scout Councils in Region 6. Region 6 includes the states of North and South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Studies made throughout America indicate that most boys join Scouting through invitation of boys who are already members. With this fact in mind, each Cub, Boy Scout, and Explorer will be asked to invite his "buddy" to join. Awards will be made to boys and Scout units meeting their objectives.

The Round-Up will also honor the memory and thoughtful planning of Robert Baden-Powell who was born 100 years ago. Baden-Powell was the originator of the Boy Scout program in England. The movement was started 50 years ago and has since spread to all corners of the globe.

Dr. Robinson urges that all Scout units, their leaders, and the district leaders participate to the fullest in this big activity.

By BOB POTTER

A touchdown pass snatched by Back John Morris of Murphy High plus a heroic goal-line stand by the Bulldogs spelled a 7-0 victory for Murphy High over the Andrews Wildcats Friday night.

Murphy will travel to Sylva Friday night for their second game while Andrews will be host to the Robbinsville eleven.

Murphy's win was a fortunate one for the Bulldogs, for the Wildcats outgained on the ground and strikingly dominated the last half of play.

From the 6 yard line where Terry Postell had made a first down, Andrews backs struck four times at the goal—to be thrust back. Don Amos and Billy Lovingsod threw a Wildcat runner for a loss, and while Terry Postell lunged to inside the 2 yard marker the Wildcats could not make the goal. Bobby Morris Murphy back who had led in stuffing off a game-closing Andrews rally in the season's opener the year before, spear-headed the defense, with Bob Hendrix, John Morris and Carl Radford joining in.

Murphy will need to strengthen its attack, and show a more rugged defense in its second game against a strong Sylva team, victorious over Hayesville last week 32-0. Andrews, again playing at home, meets Robbinsville, 28 to 6 winner against Cherokee.

Last week's game—played before several hundred rabid Cherokee County fans—opened with a rush. John Morris carried Higdon's kickoff to his own 44; and, with Bobby Morris and Birchfield, slashed through for two consecutive first downs.

Here the Wildcats dug in, however, and after a fumble Birchfield on fourth down threw to J. Morris for the game's lone touchdown. Morris also ran the extra point.

The Bulldogs uncorked another drive during the quarter but Joe Jones recovered a fumble for the Wildcats on their 45 yard line. Gains by Olin and Terry Postell took the ball to Murphy's 20 yard line but a penalty and a tightening Bulldog defense enabled Coach Church McConnell's team to take over.

Penalties were occurring frequently.
