Teen Scene By Betty Weaver

We go along in a state of semi-seasonal activities-wearing summer clothes, going to school then we realize that not only the vacation but the summer itself is going. College students are leaving for their respective schools, autumn begins officially next week, our first home football game will be Friday night, the Cherokee County Fair was held last week. Those are some of the positive things. On the negative side is the things we'll miss. The swimming pool is closing, it'll soon be too cold to play tennis, swimsuits will give way to overcoats. The boat docks are moving down with it. One of the things we'll miss especially is the visits with Jo and Elmer Taylor at the boat docks before and after swimming, skiing or boating. They always have a warm greeting and a cold drink for the water-logged teenagers.

Sunday school outings will be hayrides instead of picnics and swimming trips. Weiner roasts will change to indoor parties. Hot chocolate will replace ice tea and Colas. The TAC will reopen. It's been an extra-ordinarily good summer; and who knows, maybe it will be an even better fall and winter.

Same score, same victor, different loser. The Murphy Bulldogs defeated Sylva's football team 7-0 on Sylva's field Friday night despite a light rain during the second half. This Friday we meet East Fannin High School's eleven in our first home game of the season. It will also be the first game in our new football field and the first game using the new lights. This is a non-conference game, a fact that won't lessen the excitement. We're all hoping the home team will christen the new field with a smashing victory.

KNOWLEDGE SEEKERS Speaking of those Murphyites who'll be returning to college this fall-there certainly are a lot of them. Yet many young men and women are voluntarily by passing the best and perhaps the most important years of their youth. Now is the time to consider and plan for a higher education. There are several graduates of Murphy High School at Grady Hospital School of Nursing in Atlanta. They are Edna Ann Palmer, Linda Palmer, Gladys Painter, Carole Helton, and Lois Kirkland. Shirley Smith is attending Young Harris College. At the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill are Gordon Darnell, Fred Van Horn, Bobby Easley Tommy Howse, Bill Browning, Walter Mauney, Fred Bates, James Smith, Harry Killian, and one of our former teachers, Albert H. Wallace. Charles Smith is attending Duke University at Durham. N. C. State has a generous delegation including H. C. Bueck, Howard Cornwell, Steve Hembree, Bill Lovingood and Wade Zimmerman.
