Miss Judy Doris King Becomes Bride of Kenneth G. Lovingood

Miss Judy Doris King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. King of Murphy, became the bride of Kenneth G. Lovingood, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Lovingood of Murphy, at 7 o'clock Saturday night, in the Bellview Methodist Church.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Charlene Davidson, soprano, and Miss Annette White pianist.

The Rev. Hal Finney performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a navy blue suit fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt, with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Priscilla Ray of Ellijay, Ga., maid of honor, wore a suit of beige and blue and a corsage of pink carnations.

Miss June King of Murphy, cousin of the bride, and Miss Pat McNeley of Blue Ridge, Ga. were bridesmaids. They wore pink carnation corsages.

John L. Mulkey, nephew of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Roger Mulkey, nephew of the bridegroom, and Robert McDonald of Murphy.

Thomas J. Bristol Observes 95th Birthday

ANDREWS—Thomas Jefferson Bristol celebrated his 95th birthday anniversary Saturday at the Bristol farm about a mile from Andrews with his son, Robert Bristol and his family, with whom he resides.

Friends and relatives called Saturday and Sunday afternoons to extend warm wishes on this happy occasion.

Mr. Bristol has three sons, Frank Bristol of Hayesville, Bruce Bristol and Robert Bristol both of Andrews; also two daughters, Mrs. W. T. Forsyth and Mrs. Richard Patton both of Andrews. Eight grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter.

Mr. Bristol is a Mason and a member of the First Baptist Church. For a number of years before his retirement he was a merchant and farmer and served two terms as Cherokee County Commissioner.

He was born in Clay County October 26, 1862, the son of Thomas B. and Addie Johnson Bristol of Clay County. He moved to Valleytown in 1887 before the railroad was located in this section.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the home. Assisting with the reception were Miss Mary Helen Hatchett, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. L. L. Mason and Mrs. R. C. Mattox.

The bride is a senior at Murphy High School. The groom is employed at Davis Esso Service Station.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lovingood are making their home in Murphy.

Mrs. Ray Frye Honors Daughter On Third Birthday

Mrs. Ray Frye of Andrews entertained with a party at her home Wednesday from 2 to 4 p. m. to honor her daughter, Diane, on the occasion of her third birthday anniversary.

The Halloween motif was observed in the decorations of the rooms and in the refreshments of ice cream, chocolate cakes and candies. The refreshment table was centered with a jack-o-lantern. Favors were masks, whistles and balloons.

The hostess was assisted in serving by her two sisters, Mrs. Martin West and Mrs. Truett Grey.

After games the honoree opened her many gifts. Guests were Debbie Fuller, Lyn Watson, Michael and Gary Gray, Cathy West, Morris West Jr., Becky and Scotty Shiedy, Lessa Neal, Charlene Jordan, Thomas Ray Frye and Tommie Brooks.
