Sunday morning will be "The Angels' Song", with Christmas music.

On Tuesday, Christmas Eve, a candlelight communion service will be held. Any interested persons are invited to attend.

The Joy Gift offering for aged ministers and their families will be brought to either of the services Sunday.

CATHOLIC CHAPEL
Services at Murphy's Catholic Chapel will begin Christmas Eve at midnight.

Community singing of carols, midnight Mass, and the pastor's Christmas sermon will start the celebration of the feast of Christmas at St. William's.

Above all other times in the year, the Rev. Joseph Dean announced, Nativity services are especially open to visitors.

Masses on Christmas Day will be offered at 8 a. m. at St. William's. Then, at 11 a. m., the third Mass of Christmas will be offered at the Murphy circuit Chapel, ten miles out of Murphy toward Hayesville at Lance Cove Road and the new highway 64.

Brother Robert and Brother Lawrence will assist the Rev. Dean with the Christmas parties and services.

I Killed, 5 Injured...

An attending physician Monday night said Homer Garrett was in critical condition and Bristol's condition was fair. The latter received a head injury, abdominal injuries and fractured ribs. The elderly Mr. Garrett suffered a broken neck, an attending physician said.

In District Memorial Hospital in Andrews Mrs. Hildred Waldrop Laney of Andrews was reported improved. The condition of Alvin Leroy Foster, 51, of Knoxville, Tenn., was listed as improved Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Laney, her son, Charles Jr., 4, and Foster were occupants of a 1948 Ford that collided with the side of a Southern Railroad locomotive at the crossing on Highway 129, police said.

The young boy received numerous lacerations but was discharged from the hospital Sunday.

State Highway Patrolman E. W. Hooper said Foster was driver of the car. Both adults were thrown from the car. It was reported Foster received fractures of both legs, ear and tongue injuries. Mrs. Laney has a head injury, a fractured leg and rib it was reported.

State Highway Patrolman Ray Heffner said in the truck accident, the vehicle stopped with a wheel on Jack Garrett's head and neck. The man's father was pinned under his son and the truck. Bristol was found under the right side of the vehicle.

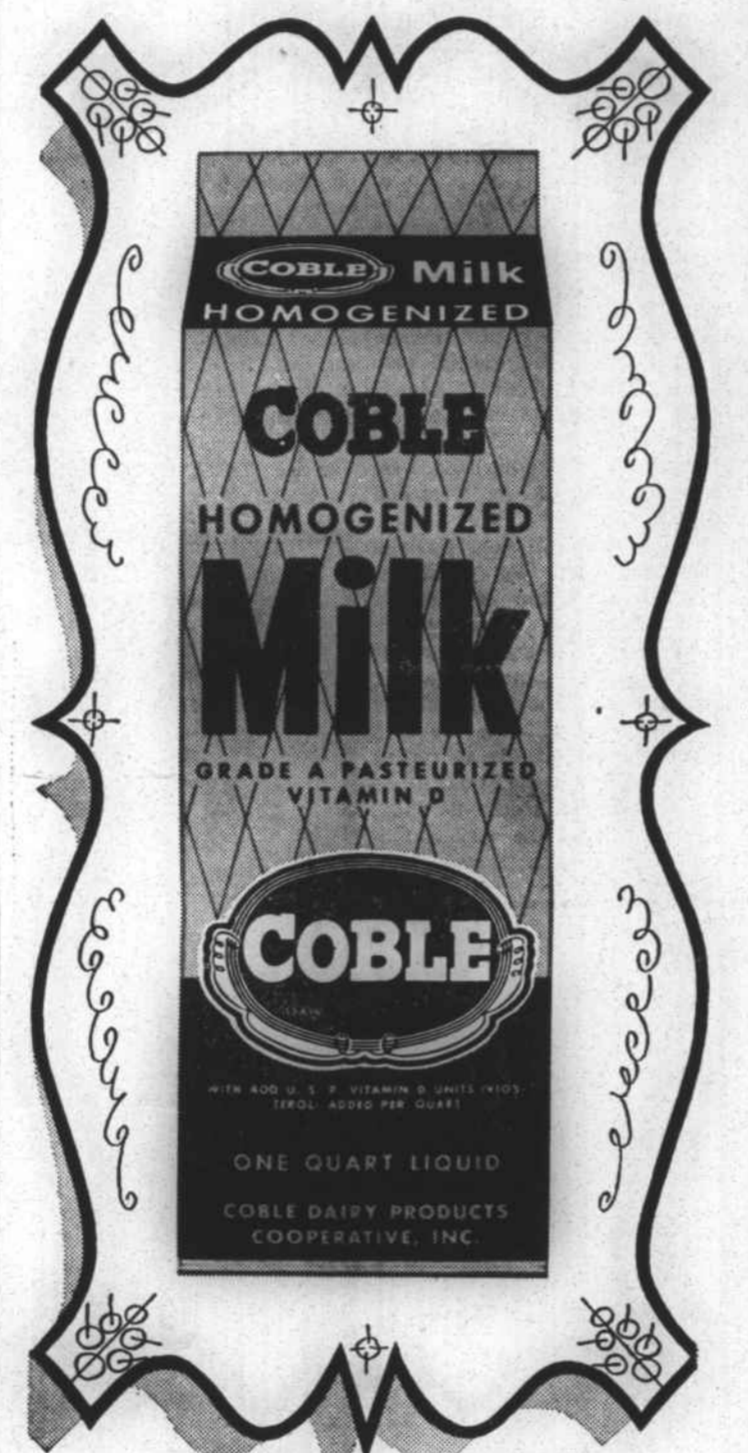

Bristol was listed as owner of the truck, the patrolman said. Andrews Police Chief F. H. Mehaffey also investigated the train-car wreck in Andrews. He said the car was enroute into Andrews when it smashed into the side of the train.

Funeral services for Mr. Garrett were held at 2 p. m. Saturday in Martin Hill Baptist Church, Clay County.

The Rev. Andy Hogan officiated and burial was in the church cemetery. Mr. Garrett was a native of Clay County, a son of Homer and Anna Chastain Garrett, was a graduate of Hayesville High School and worked for Weisinger Lumber Company of Ellijay, Ga. He had worked until 5 o'clock that day and was enroute home when the accident happened.

Surviving in addition to his parents are; his wife, Mrs. Edna Cross Garrett; two sons, Jerry and Johnny of the home; a daughter, Joan of the home; five sisters, Mrs. Edith Cody, Mrs. Pearl Cross, Mrs. Ellen Carter, Mrs. Margaret Cheek and Miss Barbara Garrett of Hayesville, and five brothers, Bruce of Canton, O., Omer Lee, George, Joe and R. L. of Hayesville.

Ivie Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
