Words of Life

THE TEACHINGS OF JESUS CONCERNING SIN
By J. Alton Morris, Pastor
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Murphy, N. C.

V. THE LOVE OF CHRIST FOR SINNERS

1. Prayer for Disciples to be Kept from World
"But now I am coming to Thee, and I speak these words while I am in the world, in order that they may have my gladness within them filling their hearts. I have given them Thy Message, and the world has hated them, because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I do not ask that Thou wilt remove them out of the world, but that Thou wilt protect them from the Evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Make them holy in the truth. Thy Message is truth. Just as Thou didst send me into the world, I also have sent them; and on their behalf I consecrate myself, in order that they may become perfectly consecrated in truth." —John 17:13-19.

2. Love for Lost Sinners
"Suppose a man gets a hundred sheep and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go and look for the one that is straying? And if he succeeds in finding it, in solemn truth I tell you that he rejoices over it more than he does over the ninety-nine that have not gone astray. Just so it is not the will of your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should be lost." —Matthew 18:12-14.

3. Purpose to Save from Sin
"But Jesus cried aloud, "He who believes in me, believes not so much in me, as in Him who sent me; and he who sees me sees Him who sent me. I have come like light into the world, in order that no one who believes in me may remain in the dark. And if any one hears my teachings and regards them not, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. He who sets me at naught and does not receive my teachings is not left without a judge; the Message which I have spoken will judge him on the last day. Because enough to ask us to meet with him at any time to discuss our road problems, we are now asking for a meeting to discuss a program report and or to discuss findings that were made relative to our former request. I hope to be able to report to you at an early date about this.

(I have been over to the Highway Department so many times that some of the people over there think that I, too, work there).

I recently noticed a fine "bracer" by Inez Clark Thorson and thought I would pass it along to you. It certainly applies to some of the people in the Legislature; I hope I am not one of them.

CONVICTION
The man who cannot settle in his mind where he should stand, but merely stays astride the fence, is certain in the end to prove himself of little worth to either side.

But he alone will be of value who, though sometimes pressure may be brought to bear, knows in his heart where he should stand and then, despite the consequence, stands firmly there.

Inez Clark Thorson.
Regards to all,

I have not spoken on my own authority; but the Father who sent me, Himself gave me a command what to say and in what words to speak. And I know that His command is the Life of the Ages. What therefore I speak, I speak just as the Father has bidden Me." —John 12:44-50.

Southern Women Fight For Memorial Holiday

While the South was fighting to free itself from the Union, its women were planting the beginnings of one of the most reverent national holidays of the U.S. — Memorial Day.

The nation was still torn by the Civil war when Southern women began to honor the dead from both sides of the Mason-Dixon line by scattering flowers on their graves.

According to research experts, the women of Columbus, Miss., decorated the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers in 1863. Two years later, Mrs. Sue Landon Vaughn, a descendant of John Adams, second president of the U.S., led some women in strewing flowers at a military cemetery in Vicksburg, Miss.

As the custom spread, General John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was persuaded to set a uniform date on which to honor the Union dead. In 1868, Logan issued a general order to all Grand Army posts, setting aside May 30th "for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country."

The first celebrations in the North exalted the Union armies for their victory over the South. But the theme of victor and vanquished gradually disappeared.

As the U.S. passed through the Spanish-American War, the World Wars and the Korean War, Memorial Day became a tribute to the nation and to all those who have died for it.

bountiful meal served on the large screened-in porch.

The lovely home was beautifully decorated with Ivy and red roses. Those present were for the meeting were: Rev. and Mrs. R. T. Houts Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fain, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Elkins, Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Elliott, Mrs. R. C. Mattox, Mrs. W. D. Townson, Mrs. W. E. Howell, Mrs. Dixie Palmer, Mrs. A. S. Asbury, Miss Hattie Palmer, Mrs. Slaughter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Fisher from Akron, Ohio were visiting in the home and she sang two beautiful solos. The meeting closed with an singing hymns.

From The Desk Of Senator Forsyth

LEGISLATURE— Most of this committee. The most important item was the Withholding Tax which was reported favorably by the committee and should reach the floor of the Senate next Tuesday. The Gen-trying to reach an adjournment date. Veteran observers of the Legislature are guessing it will be June 13.

L. Y. BALLENTINE, Commissioner of Agriculture, through his office and with the cooperation of the State Extension Service, has made an extensive survey and study of the poultry industry in our senatorial district with the idea of establishing a poultry and beef diagnostic laboratory there. Present plans are that this will probably be a traveling laboratory and can visit all counties and sections readily.

Your senator is working with Commissioner Ballentine in this and we will have a meeting soon probably next week inviting representatives of each county to participate in the discussions. This is something that our section has been needing for a long time and I hope that we can work it out.

ENTERTAINMENT Marcellus Buchanan gave a fish fry to the members of the Senate Thursday night.

Almost everyone was there, wonderful food! (Fresh mountain trout).

HOT WEATHER The weather is getting warmer in Raleigh and the air conditioning was off in the Capitol almost all day Thursday. It was especially warm at the Joint Session held at 12:15 that day to formally elect the trustees of the Greater University System.

In the early part of this Session your senator, together with the representatives from the Far West held a meeting with Mr. Melville Broughton, Chairman of the Highway Commission and his staff, relative to road work and new projects in our district. At that meeting Mr. Broughton was gracious

"THREE MINUTES A DAY, BY JAMES KELLER"

Every morning the Asheville Citizen prints an inspirational column, by James Keller, author of "The Christophers," "You can change the World," and "All God's Children". James Keller is the Catholic Chaplain for the Christophers (a word meaning "Christ-bearers"). He was ordained a Catholic priest at Maryknoll, N.Y., and is at present making T.V. movies for The Christopher Program. Father Keller has taken for his motto the ancient Chinese proverb, "Much better to light a single candle than to curse the darkness."

Here are a few applications of Father Keller's motto: "What does a good salesman do? He wastes no time knocking his competitor's product. Instead he pushes his own. He does not disprove any thing, but he improves. He does not tear down, he builds up. He does not let George do it. He does it. He knows he can change the world, for in exact proportion as light is added, so does the darkness disappear! Is there a P.T.A. in town? Is there a meeting soon? A simple job may have to go undone because of lack of your personal cooperation. Teachers today are doubling up much of their work with the same pay. Just a little appreciation goes a long way. Teaching is a vocation. And a smoothly working P.T.A. can help keep teaching a vocation, and a joy. Years ago, if Johnny got in trouble at school, why then he was in serious trouble at home too. The parents would back the teacher all the way. Today, the opening day of school, Mother brings Junior up to first grade. "This is Billy Jones," she says — "Now Billy is used to kindness at home — always smile when you tell Billy to do something — encourage him with everything he does. That is the way we always treat him. Be kind to him — and be sure you have him bring home one of his papers every day, so that we can show the relatives the progress he is making" . . . and then if Billy fails to make good grades — all the complaining and raving about our teachers that you hear . . . Certainly, whether it be baseball, or school teachers, or local need for recreation, it is true and it always will be true. "Far better to light a single candle, than to curse the darkness."

Every day be on the look out for other applications appearing in the Asheville Citizen in the column, "Three Minutes A Day" by James Keller.
