WEDS

Miss Mary Ruth Gibson

Miss Mary Gibson Becomes Bride Of Alvin Jesse Stiles Of Franklin

ANDREWS—Miss Mary Ruth Gibson became the bride of Alvin Jesse Stiles of Franklin, Friday in a ceremony held in the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Gibson and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles of Franklin.

The Rev. Bob Jackson, pastor of the Foodin Church of God in Asheville officiated and a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert Heaton organist and Mr. Daniel Vaught of Cullowhee vocalist.

Floor baskets of white gladioli and tall wrought iron urns of white asters and Shasta daisies flanked by white tapers in candelabra were used in decorating the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of embroidered lace over satin, fashioned with yoke, high neckline with long sleeves that ended in points over the wrists. Festoon patterns of lace applied on the full triple tiered skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids and stephanotis with a cascade of ribbon streamer.

Miss Joan Gibson of Hayesville was her cousin's maid of honor. She wore a waltz length gown of Romance blue chiffon over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Mrs. June Evans of Winston-Salem a former classmate of the bride, Miss Martha Derreberry and Miss Judy West, both of Andrews. They wore identical gowns of nest blue taffeta fashioned with full skirts and bow backs with matching bandeaux. Their bouquets were Better Times roses. Little Miss Sharon Allison of Knoxville, Tenn. niece of the bride was flower girl. She wore a blue dress of organza and carried a basket of rose petals. Doyle Stiles, cousin of the bridegroom served as best man. Ushers were David Gibson, brother of the bride and Bobby Gibson a cousin.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Daniel Vaught of Cullowhee and Mrs. Keith Allison of Knoxville, Tenn. sisters of the bride presided at the bride's table. They were assisted by Mrs. Floyd Gibson an aunt, Mrs. Woodrow Cox and Miss Meredith Whittaker.

The table was covered with a lace cloth, pink and white snapdragons in a crystal and silver epergne formed the centerpiece. Tall tapers in crystal holders completed the arrangement.

A dress of pink lace with white carnation corsage and matching accessories was worn by the bride's mother. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a beige lace dress with matching accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Andrews High School and also is a graduate of Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tenn. where she received a B.S. Degree in June. She was a member of Kappa Delta Phi Sorority and the Tennessee Wesleyan Choir. She will teach in the Andrews City School this year. The bridegroom has completed four years of military training and holds a M.A. degree from Western Carolina College, Cullowhee. He is employed in the Post Office in Franklin.

The bride chose a going-away costume of ice blue suit with white accessories and the orchid detached from her bridal bouquet for a trip by car through scenic sites in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Swanger of Charlotte were guests of her aunt Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick for the week-end. Mrs. Swanger a recent bride is the former Miss Pat Kilpatrick.

CHATTER
