GRAVE REMOVAL

By virtue of the laws of the State of North Carolina and the powers vested in us, we, the Board of Town Commissioners of the Town of Murphy, legally assembled this the 13th day of July, 1959, and realizing that desirable burial lots are no longer available in the Sunset Cemetery and that the Town of Murphy now owns adjoining property which is separated from the main cemetery by what is known as Potters Field, said property having been plotted and an access road laid out by L. R. Harding through said Potters Field, which will necessitate the removal of several graves, numbers 2, 7, 15, 31, 32, 33, & 51, as designated on plat drawn by R. L. Harding.

To resolve that in order to perform the governmental duties of the Town of Murphy as prescribed by law, graves No. 2, 7, 15, 31, 32, 33, & 51, as shown on plat drawn by L. R. Harding, be removed in accordance with the General Statutes of North Carolina, Chapter 65, Section 13, which states that graves can be removed provided thirty days notice be given to known relatives of deceased, notice of such intended removal to be run once a week for four weeks in local newspaper, graves to be removed to suitable location and left in as good condition as before and that all expenses be borne by the municipality.

To the best of our knowledge names of deceased or closest relatives are as follows:
Graves Nos. 2, Julius Young; 7, Unknown; 15, Ruth Johnson; 31, Truman Cole; 32, Henry Clayton; 33, Henry Clayton; 51, Unknown.

Dr., Mrs. Size Leave For Month Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Size left on their vacation Saturday, August 15, for a rockhunting trip on the west coast.

While in Portland, Ore., they are entering their rocks and gem stones in open competition for three national trophies.

This is at the national gem show that is held once a year. The show will be attended by amateur mineral collectors and gem cutters from all over the United States and many parts of the world.

They will be gone on this trip for about one month. The children will be staying with their grand parents in Memphis, Tenn.

DEATHS

MRS. HARRIET BROOKS
Mrs. Harriet Brooks, 83, died at 1 a.m. Tuesday, August 18 at the home of a brother, William J. Henson, Hayesville Route 3.

She was a native of Fannin County, Ga., a daughter of the late Arch and Lou Shelton Henson, and was the widow of John Brooks, who died in 1951. She was a member of Friendship Baptist Church near Hiawasse, Ga.

Services were held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Hayesville Methodist Church.

The Rev. Claude Young officiated, and burial was in the church cemetery.
Surviving are a stepdaughter Mrs. Dell Galloway of Blue Ridge, Ga.; and two stepsons, Wayne of Hayesville, and Lawson of Clayton, Ga.

Ivie Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
