Norma Crawford Becomes Bride Of Russell Pope

ANDREWS—Miss Norma Crawford became the bride of Russell Pope of Charlotte Sunday afternoon, Aug. 16 in a ceremony held at the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson Crawford of Andrews, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pope of Mooresville.

The Rev. Thomas C. Christmas Jr., pastor officiated and a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Nadine White of Charlotte, organist and Mrs. Charles Freel vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of magnolia white satin, floor length, fashioned with a fitted Chantilly lace bodice with bouffant skirt of satin. Her illusion veil was attached to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Carroll Swanger of Charlotte a former classmate, was her matron of honor. She wore a princess style dress of pink taffeta and lace with matching lace bandeaux with filiation veil attached.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. B. Hamilton Jr., of Morristown, Tenn., sister of the bride; Mrs. Billy A. Lutz of Marietta, Ga., another sister of the bride. They wore identical gowns of powder blue lace and taffeta designed along princess lines, and Miss Gay Moore of Stanley a former classmate wore pink taffeta and lace, identical to matron of honor. They carried baskets of mixed summer flowers.

Mr. Pope served his son as best man and ushers were: Benny Stuart and Mark Lane both of Charlotte.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's table was centered with a centerpiece of pink asters, white lilies, and gypsophila. Mrs. Roy Williams, aunt of the bride and Miss Darlene Powers, a former classmate presided at the table. They were assisted by Mrs. Golman Roper, Mrs. Vernon McGuire, Miss Ruth Hamilton and Mrs. E. Nicholson.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a dusty rose sheath with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Andrews High School and attended Western Carolina College where she majored in Business Education. She is employed with the City of Charlotte as secretary.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Mooresville High School and attended Western Carolina College. He is employed in Charlotte.

After a wedding trip to Blowing Rock and Virginia they will be at home in Charlotte.

For traveling the bride wore a powder blue dress with all white accessories. Her bridal gown and going away costume was designed and custom made by Mrs. G. L. Barnett of Charlotte.

Approximately 30 out of town guests attended.

OES TO MEET
Murphy Chapter No. 10 Order of the Eastern Star will meet tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Sylvia Waggoner, worthy matron, will preside.

CHEROKEE CHATTER

By OPIE McKEEVER

Closing a lively summer social season were delightful bridge parties given last week by joint hostesses OLLIE McSWAIN, RUTH FORTSYTH, MARY FAYE BRUMBY, and AVIS HOOVER, and co-hostesses JESSIE HARSHAW and ANNETTE WHITFIELD.

Among highlights of the parties were the exquisite flower arrangements that decorated both the Brumby and Whitfield homes. At Mary Faye Brumby's were handsome containers with pink roses, purple butterfly bush, and graceful white clematis and in the paneled family room were orange and yellow sunflowers against a background of glossy deep green foliage.

Annette Whitfield's living-room was gay with bright orange marigolds and mammoth dahlias and her dining room formed a lovely setting for an old-fashioned arrangement of roses and mixed summer flowers.

CO-hostesses JESSIE HARSHAW and her husband, Ed, leave this Sunday for their home in Richmond, Va. after a happy summer at Harshaw Farms. Jessie and Ed will both return to their positions with the Richmond schools. Ed's brother, HENRY HARSHAW, and wife, IDA MAE, of St. Petersburg, Fla. are welcome visitors at the Farm this week.

The Murphy Garden Club forgot business and went on an all-day outing last Friday at the pretty lake home of ALICE WILSON. After swimming and bridge the members enjoyed a bountiful picnic spread, ending with a dessert of three luscious cakes straight from the ovens of Nora Belle Odum, Avis Hoover, and Leila Hayes. Leila brought along a congenial addition to the party, her niece, EVELYN FARMER, and Alice's attractive house-guest, NANCY BELL, was there along with co-hostess ROSALYN BURGESS to assist in entertaining the guests.

A popular couple, SHIRLEY and BILL HODGES, left recently for their new home in Athens, Ga. where Bill enters the University Law School in September and Shirley will teach in the school system.

During the few years that the Hodges have been here they have made many friends, all who are keeping their fingers crossed in hopes that someday they will return to Murphy to live.

BARBARA GIBSON, one of Murphy High's spring graduates, will finish basic training in the WAC's at Ft. McClellan, Ala. on the 26th of this month.

Barbara joined the WAC's in July and was inducted at Knoxville. She will be at Ft. McClellan for several more weeks while training for secretarial work.

Another '59 senior, JIMMY MASSE, and his wife, SHIRLEY, are now living in Chattanooga where Jimmy is employed in the Good-year Retail Store. At the present time he is a part of the store's training program and is learning the in's and out's of the budget department.

Jimmy and Shirley, who have been in Chattanooga for three weeks, have an attractive apartment located off Brainerd Road.
