Miss Phyllis Wilhide Weds F. Donald Phillips ANDREWS The marriage of Miss Laura Phyllis Wilhide, daughter of Mrs. Charles Garland Wilhide and the late Mr. Wilhide, and F. Donald Phillips, Jr. son of Judge and Mrs. F. Donald Phillips of Rockingham was solemnized at the First Methodist Church, Murphy, on Saturday, December 12 at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. E. F. Baker of Robbinville, a former pastor of the bride performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Duke Whitley, organist and the Rev. R. Thomas Houts, pastor, presented a program of nuptial music. Floral arrangements of white gladiolus and lily, accented with white cathedral tapers in floor stands with native greenery completed the setting for the wedding vows. Given in marriage by her uncle, Frank S. Wilhide of Andrews, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white silk taffeta and Chantilly lace designed with fitted bodice in a hi-rise waist line formed with folds of taffeta. Chantilly lace formed the bodice and the long sleeves, which ended in points over the wrist. Tiny self covered buttons were featured at the wrist. The full gathered skirt of taffeta ended in a court train. The fingertip-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a tara of tiny seed pearls. She carried a white Bible showered with white orchids and stephanotis. Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Ewin R. Boucher of Joplin, Mo. She wore a water-tan gown of parakeet blue net over taffeta with matching bandeau and carried a colonial nosegay of pink carnations with pink satin ribbons. Bridesmaids were: Miss Octavia Phillips of Rockingham, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jack Ledford of Andrews, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Cannon of Chattanooga, Tenn. Their dresses of turquoise blue taffeta were styled similar to that of the honor attendant. They carried colonial nosegays with pink ribbon and matching bandeau. William L. Steele of Charlotte, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were William B. McKenzie, of Gainesville, Ga. Joe M. McLaurin of Rockingham and J. C. Burroughs Jr., of Winston Salem. The mother of the bride chose a dress of Dior blue Chantilly lace with which she wore a matching hat. Her corsage was a white camellia. Mrs. Phillips chose a violet taffeta dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were also white camellias. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Brumby. The home was decorated throughout with arrangements of white flowers. The bride's table was covered with an imported net cloth over satin. The five tiered wedding cake was flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers and decorated with white and pink carnations and roses. Assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Henry Franklin, Mrs. Giles W. Cover, Mrs. Ruth Forsyth, Mrs. W. A. Hoover, Mrs. James Gibbs, Mrs. Herman Brauer and Mrs. A. B. Chandler, Sr. The bride is a graduate of Andrews High School and is bookkeeper for Brumby Textile Mills Inc. of Murphy. The bridegroom attended the University of North Carolina, is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and is bookkeeper for Hitchcock Corp, Murphy.
