Shades Of Wagon Train Days

The use of oxen as farm work animals is almost a bygone thing in North Carolina these days, although they could prove to be mighty colorful and useful in Murphy's annual Wagon Train celebration July 4th. Melvin Thompson (wearing hat), who lives near Murphy, raised this pair of Holstein steers as a hobby. He also made the old-time wagon, a vehicle for riding in the furrows. Shown with Mr. Thompson are his daughter, Martha Anne, and Hugh Ables, assistant extension agent for Cherokee County. This photo was taken by Tom Wood of the N.C. State College Extension Service on a recent field trip to this area.

Right Tools Make Tasks Easy, Fun

What seems to be a difficult home modernization job becomes easy with the right tools. Jobs that should take a few minutes run into hours if you lack proper equipment.

Here are the tools which should be found in every home workshop: A claw hammer and an axe with steel handles; three screwdrivers; two wood chisels; a cold chisel; three - cornered file; several pairs of pliers and a sander with the new steel sand paper.

For more - involved carpentry work, you need a cross - cut saw, plane, try - square, level and hand drill. You should also have a pry - bar and a steel rule. As an aid to painting and glazing, a wide putty - knife and a narrow putty - knife are invaluable.

Home handymen who undertake more complicated repairs will need additional types of tools.

Prepare Surfaces

Remember that a repainting job does not begin with the application of the paint. It starts with the proper preparation of the surfaces to be painted. The surfaces should be sound, clean, smooth, and—if they are metal—free from rust. A little time invested in careful preparation results in a more attractive and longer lasting paint job.

Bright Kitchens

Paint your kitchen a gay color—a bright cheerful color scheme makes this room, where the housewife spends so many hours each day, more pleasant. Color schemes with yellow predominating are the most popular for kitchen, but any bright colors are good.
