Wm. Neels Arrive Here For Summer

ANDREWS — A special, very warm welcome to our friends, the Neels!

Mr. and Mrs. William Neel of St. Petersburg, Fla. (and we hope that they feel that they are "also of Andrews"), arrived in Andrews Monday for a three day visit.

The Neels built a cottage during their stay here last summer and will return June 1, for several months.

Ricky and Cindy, the Neel's grandchildren, will spend part of their summer vacation here.

Mrs. Neel leads an active life during her stay in Andrews. She teaches Sunday School, attends WSCS, Garden Club, Home Demonstration club and serves at District Memorial Hospital as a Gray Lady.

Wesleyan Service Guild Holds Pot Luck Supper

ANDREWS — The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church met Monday night in the church basement for a pot-luck supper.

Mrs. Helen Axley and Mrs. Ann Matheson were hostesses.

After supper the group went to the church sanctuary for the yearly pledge service. "Jesus, The Light of the World" was the topic of program. Miss Vera Moore was in charge of the program. Miss Rebecca Babington led the devotionals — "Lighting of the Great White Light".

Miss Moore gave a short talk on "Matches To Light the Candles" after which the following members took part in the "Lighting of the Rainbow Candles": Miss Mattie Angel as new member; Miss Ruth Hamilton represented the un-touched areas around the world that the Wesleyan Service Guild must help.

Miss Jean Christy, Mrs. Ann Trull, Mrs. Judy Babington, Mrs.

Louise Enloe, Mrs. Alwayne Stratton, and Miss Rebecca Babington lit the rainbow candles and pledged their prayers, love, service, and gifts that light may come to the world.

The program was closed at the altar with a prayer of dedication — prayer was closed by Rev. Smotherman. After the program Miss Gladys Christy, president, presided over the business session. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Miss Gladys Christy; Vice president, Mrs. Mary Pearl Brown; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Anna Jean Battle; Promotional Secretary, Mrs. Alwayne Stratton; Treasurer, Miss Vera Moore and Coordinator, Mrs. Arlene Smotherman.

Spiritual Life Cultivation, Mrs. Louise Enloe; Missionary Education and Service, Miss Jean Christy; Christian Social Relations & Local Church Activities, Miss Lucile Bell; Student Work,

GA's Hold Special Focus Week Supper

ANDREWS — The G.A.'s of the First Baptist Church gave a progressive supper Monday night in observance of Focus Week. Each place the group visited represented a different mission field. The group met at the church at 5:30 p.m. to begin their journey.

Mrs. Floyd Gibson's home, the first stop, represented Hawaii. The United States, representing home missions, was held at the home of the Rev. T. C. Christmas. The G.A.'s returned to the church for spaghetti, representing Italy.

Desert was served at the home of Mrs. M. J. Jordan. The last course was ice cream which signified Alaska.

In Ladakh, a tiny, cold province in the Himalayas, a bride has the right to take the younger brothers of her husband as No. 2 and No. 3 minor husbands.

Miss Ruth Hamilton; Supply Work, Mrs. Mable Ellie; Publicity, Miss Mattie Angel; Literature, Mrs. Helen Axley and Membership, Mrs. Ann Trull.

Choir To Sing At Hayesville

ANDREWS — The choir of the First Methodist will sing at the Hayesville Methodist Church Thursday at 7:30 p.m. for their revival services.

ANDREWS—In observance of National Home Demonstration Week, the Valleytown Home Demonstration Club prepared the above window display. Various handicrafts from rug making to picture painting were displayed in the window of the Nantahala Power & Light Co. during the week.

Andrews Lions Club Gives Year's Report

ANDREWS — Yearly activities of the Andrews Lions Club have been announced by Sam Hartman, secretary.

Eighty-nine eye examinations were secured without cost to the club.

Sixty-nine people were provided with glasses, repairs to glasses and transportation for medical purposes. Eight people were provided with X-rays and general drugs. Three people were given new clothing.

Two forms of recreation were provided for the blind, including picnics, and baskets.

Twenty school children were screened for eye defects.

Mr. Hartman reports that a total of 185 man hours were put into the projects. He said that $382.50 of the club's money was spent in rendering services to the blind.

Rotary Club Meetings Varied And Interesting

ANDREWS — Each year, one of the highlights of the Andrews Rotary Club meetings is the appearance of the Foreign Exchange student. Exchange students are made possible by the Chan Gordon Memorial Scholarship Fund.

One of the students, Jean Michel Hanin, of Champagne, France, recently spoke at the Andrews club concerning his experience in America and the high points of his school year at W.C.T.C. After speaking, the young Frenchman answered questions from club members on his personal observations on international affairs.

Dr. W. S. Cann, county health doctor, also spoke at a recent Rotary meeting. Dr. Cann gave a talk on his varied experiences as a Naval doctor. He will return to the club in the future to speak on County health problems.

At the latest Rotary meeting, Douglas Smith of Murphy, showed the club slides of last year's Wagon Train. The slides covered the trip from Tellico Plains to Murphy. Rotary Club officers for 1960-61 are Gene Shaw, president, Galusha Pulliam, vice president, John Ellis, secretary treasurer. The Board of Directors consists of Jeff Brooks, Tye Burnette and Parker Madry.

These officers will be installed and take office at the first meeting in July.

Mrs. Cover Attends Festival

ANDREWS — Mrs. Giles Cover attended the Cosby Ramp Festival Sunday and reports a "good time had by all."

Mrs. Cover was introduced by Sen. Estes Kefauver, Dorothy Collins, well known entertainer, was among the special guests.

Miss Tennessee, Mickey Whalen, was also there and sang several numbers. "She has one of the most gorgeous voices I have ever heard and a number of people commented that she sang much better than Miss Collins," said Mrs. Covers.

This is the fifth year that Mrs. Cover has attended the annual celebration. During Mrs. Cover's past visits she has met such famous people as former Pres. Harry S. Truman, and Tennessee Ernie Ford.
