Soil Conservation News

By JOHN S. SMITH

A supply of soil maps of Cherokee County has just been received from the Area Office of the Soil Conservation Service in Waynesville. Exactly what it is of greatest interest to most people is the very detailed map of the Area Office we can expect of Cherokee County contained in a set less than has been received for the booklet. The map is in four sections which can be glued together to form a single sheet map of the entire county. Every road, building, trail, stream, woodland and all other natural features which were present when the survey was made are shown on the map. Many hunters and fishermen have obtained a copy of the map for their use on the streams.

Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service have distributed more than a hundred copies of this report in recent weeks but we still have a large supply available. Any one who would like to obtain a copy can do so by calling at the Soil Conservation Service Office in the Court House. The County Agent's office also has copies as does the Area Office. We will be glad to have you call for the reports for our storage facilities are very limited, and the reports are actually in our way in the office. If you would like a copy please stop by the office and pick it up.

This Soil's Survey, which was compiled in 1951 by The United States Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station and the Tennessee Valley Authority is in booklet form. Included is over one hundred pages of factual information about the

Clergy-Doctors Dinner Postponed

The dinner to be sponsored by the Sisters of Providence for the clergy and doctors of the area has been postponed to a later date.

Due to the transfer of their chaplain, Rev. Joseph Dean, the Sisters are going to re-schedule their public relations dinner to sometime in July.

At this time their new chaplain, Rev. Raymond Deben, will be able to represent them at the meeting.

Members requested to be on the preparation committee are Rev. Robert Potter, Dr. F. V. Taylor and Dr. J. N. Hall.

DOCKERY REUNION

By Mrs. Garnie Nix

Mrs. Lucius Dockery and son, Ralph, of Murphy Route 3, who are both shut-ins, were honored Sunday, June 5, with a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dockery.

The table was filled with delicious food and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent with old friends and neighbors dropping in to visit — some who hadn't met in years.

The children attending were Mr. and Mrs. Enos Lovingood of Athens, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Nix, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kaphart and children, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hall and children, Mrs. Roscoe Dockery and children — all of Murphy Route 3. Mrs. Emma Dockery is the widow of the late N. E. Dockery who passed away June, 1939.

The Lord has been good to us and let our mother live to the age of 79. She has been a blessing to all of us.

The town site of Andover, Mass., where Phillips Andover Academy is located, was purchased from the Indians for about $30 and a coat.
