

Young Harris College Begins 75th School Year Sept. 17 With Capacity Attendance

YOUNG HARRIS - Young Harris College's seventy-fifth school year begins on September 17 when approximately 500 students, a capacity number for the past two years, will be enrolled.

Dormitories will be open for freshmen on Saturday, September 17, and the following Monday will be devoted to orientation and counseling.

Sophomore registration will be held on Tuesday morning, September 20, with the freshmen registering in the afternoon and on Wednesday morning. Classes will begin on the afternoon of September 21.

Students will be entering from fifteen states with the greatest number coming from Georgia, Florida, and North Carolina. All dormitory spaces will be filled to capacity.

In addition to the large enrollment, President C. R. Clegg has announced the appointment of five new faculty members and two new associate administrative officers. Two faculty members, Dr. Robert P. Andrews and Miss Ondee Ravan, are returning after leaves of absence.

Walter B. Mathis, Jr., of Modoc, S. C., who joined the faculty during the summer session, will teach English and French. He received his A. B. degree from The Citadel and his M. A. degree from Harvard University.

Marquis E. Jones, Stuttgart, Ark., will join the faculty as band instructor. He holds a B. S. degree from Memphis State University and an M. M. degree from Florida State University.

Sarah M. Stanley, Decatur, Ga., has been appointed as an instructor in physical education. Miss Stanley received her B. A. degree from Oglethorpe University and her M. Ed. Degree from the University of Georgia.

William T. Stewart, Cookeville, Tenn., will join the faculty as an instructor in chemistry, and Betty O. Weaver, Nashville, Tenn., has been appointed as an instructor in history. Mr. Stewart received his B. S. degree from Arkansas State College and his M. A. degree from Tennessee Polytechnic Institution. Miss Weaver holds a B. A. degree from George Peabody College and is a candidate for the M. A. degree from Vanderbilt University.

Appointed to head the college food service are Col. Thomas R. Rogers, (U. S. Army, Ret.), and his wife, the former Marie Lu Davis of Gainesville. Mrs. Rogers, a registered nurse, has been employed by the Public Health Service for a number of years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are graduates of Young Harris College.
