Election For Committeemen

September 8, 1960 ASC community committeemen will be elected in every community in North Carolina.

The persons elected on this date will have a lot of influence on the kind of a farm program we will have in our county for the coming year. The first thing they will do is elect the county committeemen to serve and administer the program ASC has in the county, which are the Price Support Program, Soil Bank, Acreage Allotment and Marketing Quota, Wool Program and the Agricultural Conservation Program. Everyone should go and vote in this election in their community, September 5.

The polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Ballots will be at the polling place and the nominees names will be on the ballot. The voter will be allowed to vote for any 5 on the ballot, if the nominees do not suit the voter he has the privilege of writing in 3 names of persons he would like to see elected as community committeemen. The person receiving the highest number of votes in each community will be the chairman of the community committee and the delegate to the County Convention September 23, 1960, to elect the County Committeemen. The persons elected at this community election are the key men in the ASC program in the county for the coming year.
