Murphy Merchants Group Cited; Crafters Meet At Power Board

by Mrs. Beryl Fulton

Much less than a year ago, it would have been very hard for any one to have convinced me that Murphy needed, or had enough available people, to support another organization, of any kind. And, that is where I was completely wrong! Have you ever seen any organization work together more beautifully and cooperatively, or try any harder to keep "home dollars" at home, than our very own Murphy Merchants Association? They are a determined group of businessmen and women with a definite purpose in mind—to make Murphy and Cherokee County the trading center of Western North Carolina, North Georgia, and Eastern Tennessee. The Power Board is ready and willing to help these merchants in every way possible, and our sincere desire and purpose is to see that they get the very best value in good service for their dollars spent for electricity. We believe good lighting is the very best means of advertisement. Congratulations, Merchants Association, and may your sales increase!

And speaking of increases—we find that our taxes to the Town of Murphy General Department are being increased $64.68 per month. Do you realize that the Power Board paid the General Department $14,552.88 in taxes last fiscal year—$1212.74 monthly. Or, did you realize that your Power Board paid any taxes at all? This year the total amount will be $15,299.00, making the Power Board the biggest taxpayer to the Town of Murphy—another way your Power Board uses its money locally to help you and the people at home.

Last week one of the most enthusiastic groups of crafters we've seen in a long time met in the Power Board auditorium. And with Miss Lelia Hayes conducting the group in stenciling and Mrs. C. C. Williams drawing, free-hand, initials in old English for everyone, why couldn't they have been enthusiastic? Attending from Andrews and working very hard too, were Mrs. Lucy Laughter, Mrs. Luther Nicholson, and Mrs. B. M. Gibbs. Helen Moody completed a white linen luncheon cloth with a beautiful pink dogwood motif, Mrs. Bess Alverson, Mrs. R. D. Chandler, Misses Theima Wheeler and Mary Hensley, Mrs. E. G. Greer, and Mrs. Clyde McNabb had speckled roosters, cattails, dogwood, and morning glory motifs stenciled on everything from aprons, tea towels, place mats to window curtains.

Bookmobile Driver Writes Poem

(Editor's Note: The following poem was written by Mrs. Nancy Dewese, who is the driver of bookmobile, "So Big II", in the Nantahala Region.)

We travel the winding roads
We climb the mountain slopes
We roam the valleys below
Just to meet the folks
Who love to read and browse
our shelves.
They come from far and near
With flour sacks and pillow cases
Filled with books to exchange
And to chat and ask, "What is news today?"

We meet the little boys and girls with
A dog or cat and maybe a pet rabbit or squirrel
They like to pick their books
And turn the pages
To see the pretty pictures within.
We can't neglect the old folks, the sick,
And the crippled, whom we call "Shut-ins"
So we take them a collection of books and magazines
And watch their eyes light up like the stars at night.
We love our work and the people we meet
And are glad when time rolls around for the next visit

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF SERVICE OF PROCESS BY PUBLICATION
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHEROKEE COUNTY
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
TO: JAMES EUBANK:

Take notice that a pleading seeking relief against you has been filed in the above entitled action. The nature of the relief being sought is as follows:

That the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of Clara L. Hoblitzel prohibiting the conveyance of a house and lot or lots located at the corner of Cherry and Fourth Streets, Andrews, North Carolina, be declared an unlawful restraint on alienation and illegal and void and that a Deed for said property tendered by plaintiff to defendant, Lorene Derreberry, convey a fee simple title and will vest in the defendant, Lorene Derreberry a fee simple title to the lands therein described.

You are required to make defense to such pleading not later than October 6, 1960, and upon your failure to do so the party seeking service against you will apply to the Court for the relief sought.

This 26th day of August, 1960.

FREE HELP

... with your uses of electricity!

Using electricity is easy. You merely push a button, turn a dial or set a thermostat. But before electricity can be used, plans must be made. Before you build, or remodel, call us for electrical assistance. We'll help you plan your kitchen, design lighting, make layouts for electric heating and air conditioning and help you, or your electrical contractor, plan the wiring. This service is free. There's no obligation.
