Andrews To Form Girl Scout Troop

Harry Zimmerman and Mrs. Ruth Sprung, District Chairman of the Pisgah Girl Scout Council, will work together to form a new Brownie and Girl Scout Troop in Andrews. An organizational meeting will be held Thursday, September 22 at 3:30 p.m. at the Andrews School Auditorium. All interested mothers with girls seven years old and up are asked to attend.

DEAR SALLY: Our son will be marrying a lovely girl next month, and everything was fine with us until we learned the girl's parents are planning just a very simple wedding and reception. Please don't misunderstand. We aren't snobbish, but we DO have a social standing in our community and a certain reputation to maintain. When we mentioned this to our son, he told us this was all his girl's parents could afford and that it was all right with him. Then we suggested to the girl's parents that we finance a large and beautiful reception in a hotel, and they turned us down politely and changed the subject. Now we're very much embarrassed. We have many prominent friends whom we'd hesitate to invite to such a small and simple reception for a cookie and a glass of punch. They'd laugh at us. Don't you think this girl's folks should swallow their false pride for our sake? MORTIFIED.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

By Roberta Lee
Q. What is the proper way to eat lobster?
A. Three important steps are: (1) Left hand holds lobster on plate. Right hand twists off big claws and lays them aside on plate. Body meat removed from under tail, cut in small pieces, dipped in sauce and eaten with special seafood fork. (2) Left hand steadies lobster on plate. Right hand twists off small claws and meat is sucked out from severed ends (noiselessly). (3) Pick up big claws with hand, crack with nutcracker, and remove meat with fork or nut-pick. Then clean hands with napkin.
Q. When an invitation written on an informal card is received, and a reply is requested, is it all right to make this reply over the telephone?
A. It is quite all right to acknowledge an informal invitation over the telephone.
Q. Who is supposed to defray the expenses of wedding photographs?
A. The bride's family.
Q. What are the generally-accepted names applied to each wedding anniversary, from the first to the tenth?
A. First, paper or plastic. Second, cotton. Third, leather. Fourth, silk or nylon. Fifth, wood. Sixth, iron. Seventh, copper, brass or wool. Eighth, electric appliances. Ninth, pottery. Tenth, tin or aluminum.
Q. When a girl has been introduced to a young man, and is leaving him, should she say that she is glad to have met him?
A. No. These are the young man's lines, to which she may reply, "Thank you." If, however, he fails to make any such statement, then a smile and a "good-by" are all necessary.
Q. When a host is carving the meat at the table, should he cut enough for everyone before serving anyone?
A. This is the usual procedure.
Q. If a woman guest is leaving a party and the men are standing nearby waiting for her to make her exit, and she is engaged in conversation with the hostess, should they remain standing or may they sit down?
A. They should remain standing for so long as they are nearby -- but it would be all right for them to sit down if they move to another part of the room.
Q. When one is at a banquet and doesn't care to drink coffee, is it proper to turn one's cup over as a signal to the waiter?
A. No. It is better to indicate the fact by a slight shake of your head, and a "No, thank you" to the waiter as he is about to serve you.

Getting into debt is getting into a tanglesome net. - Ben Franklin

AFTER YOU HAVE SEEN IT YOU WILL SAY IT WAS WORTH TEN TIMES THE PRICE!

For a mere 19¢ you can own a very interesting booklet about two very different people . . . One of them is described by one newspaper as "ONE OF THE STATE'S MOST REMARKABLE PERSONALITIES," the other one is described by another newspaper as "FRIENDLY AND HELPFUL."

Doesn't that apply to most people? Aren't we all "friendly and helpful"?

One of them stands a chance to make a fortune if elected. The other one stands a chance to lose a fortune if elected.

One of them largely confines his activities concerning mankind to talking. The other one to giving and living by the Golden Rule.

One of them has published an ad in the 12 million circulation Reader's Digest which has been described by a famous writer as "ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HUMAN, MOST COLORFUL ADS TO EVER COME OUT OF THE SOUTH(LAND)." The other one has been described as "ABLE."

A newspaper described one of them as "QUOTE RESTRAINED." Another paper has this to say about the other one: "HE IS NO DREAMY IDEALIST AND MAKES A LOT OF SENSE IN SPEAKING OUT OF AN EXPERIENCE AS WIDE AS THE WORLD."

One paper describes one of them as "CONSCIENTIOUS." Two other newspapers call one of them "A PRETTY BIG FELLOW" who "POSSESSES RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS FAR ABOVE THE AVERAGE."

Both men are married for over a quarter-century to the same wives. One of them has three, the other one, two children. Their combined age is about 99 years. Their combined total residence in the mountains, 70 years.

You will want to read this 40 page booklet that has been described as one of the most unusual ever printed. Not like this has ever been published. You can own it by sending 19¢ in coin or postage stamps to the WESTERN CAROLINA NEWS COMPANY, P. O. BOX 2985, ASHEVILLE, N. C. (4 cent stamp on envelope). If you want to order copies for your friends, you may order ten copies by paying $1.00 instead of $1.50. DORIS RATHBONE
