Former Residents Victims Of Hurricane Donna

ANDREWS - A former Andrews and Murphy family were victims of Hurricane Donna. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickey and family of Wauchoa, Florida, returned from a football game Friday night to find their home completely destroyed by fire. Owing a furniture store nearby, they decided to stay there for the night.

Mrs. Dickey is the former Miss Mary Katherine Holland, daughter of Mrs. Turner Holland of Andrews.

By 4:00 p.m. Saturday the storm moved in with winds reaching 150 miles an hour, shattering windows and doors. Brick from other buildings broke down the walls of their store. Water rose 3 to 4 inches in depth. This lasted until late Sunday evening.

Others from this county who were in the storm area were Mrs. Jane Orr and her son, Pinckney Orr and family of Fort Meyers, Fla. They received very little damage to their homes and garage.

Brauers Attend State Eye Bank Workshop

The North Carolina Eye Bank held a two day workshop for representatives of the Lion's Club in the state at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, in Winston Salem, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 17-18.

This is the third year that Lion and Lioness Hermann K. Brauer have attended the Workshop. Brauer is the chairman for District 31-A. Sgt. Charles W. Furness of the Army Medical Corp. at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C., showed slides of the removal of eyes from the donor, the method of storing eye parts and the surgery of transplanting a donated cornea into an eye blinded by a corneal disease or injury.

Louis Hottenmaier, II, president of Eye Bank Research Foundation in Washington, D. C., made the major address to the organization on Sunday. He stated that the gift of our eyes after death, that others may see, is the greatest weapon we have for fighting Communism.

The group visited State Eye Bank headquarters in Winston Salem where they watched a technician process two eyes for a preservation. For information or forms on how to donate one's eyes at death, that others might see, contact either Mr. or Mrs. Hermann Brauer or Post Office Box D, Andrews, N. C.

NICKELS FOR KNOW-HOW

TODAY AND TOMORROW AHEAD

Each time you buy a ton of fertilizer or feed, you contribute a nickel to the outstanding agricultural research and educational programs at North Carolina State College. You and Your friends voted in 1951 to add a nickel to the cost of your feed and fertilizer because you believed it was an investment that would mean a brighter future for farming. "Nickels for Know-How," you called it. Since you first began investing, 126 tons of nickels have gone to work, paying dividends in the form of improved plant varieties, better control of insect pests and weeds, higher crop and livestock yields, and better cultural practices.

Every three years you have an opportunity to vote whether or not you would like to continue to invest your nickels. On three occasions you have overwhelmingly voted "yes." On September 30, 1960, you will have an opportunity to say again that you want to take an active part in a program that has made and will continue to make a brighter future for you and your family.

Vote YES in the NICKELS FOR KNOW-HOW referendum on September 30.
