(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of book reviews by Miss Maria Louise Travis that will be published in The Scout. Leon Trotsky's books are available for your reading pleasure at the Murphy Carnegie Library.)

Reviewed by Maria Louise Travis

Throughout his autobiography, Leon Trotsky, controversial figure of the twentieth century, focused closeups of the great and near great in the world of communism. With daring accuracy, he spotlighted the crafty intrigue behind the Bolshevik revolution, from which he stood out as the most brilliant intellectual of his time.

Trotsky was the second most important man in the Soviet government until Lenin's death in 1924. Then Stalin undermined his position, forced his expulsion from the party and finally exiled him from Russia.

After his exile in 1929, Trotsky lived in Turkey, France, and Norway, finally settling in Mexico City in 1937. Under constant surveillance by Stalinist agents, he was axed to

Beautifully proportioned to the
CLASSIC FORD LOOK

BEAUTIFULLY BUILT TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF

You are looking at the trend-setting car of our times, the '61 Ford ... a car whose clean and classic profile is unmatched by any other in the world. Just one glance at the Big Circle taillights and sculptured rear deck, one look at the crisp, fresh front-end design and you'll know the '61 Ford is the classic style of the Nineteen Sixties.

Here is a Ford that is not only new in looks and ride and comfort, but new in its entire concept. The '61 Ford is actually built to take care of itself! It lubricates its chassis ... cleans its own oil ... adjusts its own brakes ... protects its own body.

Indeed, here is a car that will save you valuable time and money by doing away with many stops for service.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF ... THE FIRST 1961 CAR DEALER-WARRANTED FOR 12,000 MILES OR ONE FULL YEAR.

Lubricates Itself. You'll normally go 30,000 miles without a chassis lubrication.

Cleans Its Own Oil. You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.

Guards Its Own Muffler. Ford mufflers are double wrapped and aluminized -- normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Adjusts Its Own Brakes. New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.

Protects Its Own Body. All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath the doors.

Takes Care of Its Own Finish. New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.

Warranty. The '61 Ford is built to meet three principal goals: finest quality, greatest durability, most reliable operation. Expressing their complete confidence that this has been accomplished, Ford Dealers led the industry in extending their warranty on '61 Fords to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first. See this warranty at your Ford Dealer's now.
