"Football, Mountain Style" Homecoming Theme at WCC

CULLOWHEE - Tyres H. Kiser, chairman of the homecoming committee at Western Carolina College, has announced the program for Homecoming Day set for Saturday, October 29.

A motorcade on campus will replace the traditional parade held in Sylva, a move necessitated largely by road construction between Cullowhee and the county seat. The motorcade will be held at 1:30 p.m. with the Homecoming Queen and her court and college officials participating, in addition to campus organizations. Instead of floats, each group will have a campus site set aside for the construction of decorations following the theme, "Football, Mountain Style."

Open house will be held in all dormitories and Student Union from 10:30 a.m. to noon, with registration of alumni at Hunter Library from 10:00 to 12:00.

At three o'clock ceremonies will be held in Hoey Auditorium in which the new administration building, occupied last April, will be dedicated in honor of President Emeritus William Ernest Bird. This will be followed at 3:30 by open house in the new building during which time tea will be served by Alpha Phi Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity.

Kiser said that an alumni mass meeting will be held in the auditorium at 4:30, at which time officers for the coming year will be elected. At 5:30 the traditional barbecue dinner will be served in Brown Cafeteria.

At 7:45, Dr. Paul A. Reid, president, will crown the Homecoming Queen and her court will be presented in pre-game ceremonies at Memorial Stadium. The homecoming football game, WCC vs. Elon College, is set for eight o'clock.

The day's festivities will end with an informal dance in Reid Gymnasium, sponsored by the Marshal's Club. The college's own dance band, Mark VI Combo, will provide music.

Reese Campaigns Down East With GOP Candidates

Dal M. Reese left Saturday for a week's campaigning with Bob Gavin and the other state Republican candidates. Mr. Reese is candidate on the Republican State ticket for State Auditor. Mr. Reese said, "I traveled almost from Murphy to Mando before last, to Elizabeth City to be exact, covering the northeastern half of the state."

The group started this week in Wilmington and will reach Asheville for a big rally in the city auditorium Friday night, October 28. Mr. Gavin and company are scheduled to reach Asheville Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nichols and Mrs. and Mrs. Edwin Bristol attended the Tennessee-Alabama football game in Knoxville Saturday.

Mrs. Ruth Carringer of Winston-Salem is spending the week with her brother, Mark Elliott and Mrs. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simonds of Copperhill, Tenn. and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simonds and children were guests of Mrs. Glenn Helton Sunday.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Rules And Regulations

Everyone is eligible to compete in this contest except employees of The Cherokee Scout and members of their families.

Just read the advertisements on this page. A game will be found in each ad. Circle with a pencil your choice of the winner of each game. It is not necessary to guess the score of the different games in the ads, only the winning team.

However, do not fail to guess the score of the game listed below marked "Tie-breaker." This will be used in determining winners only in case of an unbreakable tie.

Winners will be based on the entries having the most winners picked. DECISION OF THE JUDGES WILL BE FINAL. Contest judges will be members of the staff of The Scout.

Print your name and address in the space provided below and bring or mail your entry to the office of The Scout.

Winners will be announced in the following week's edition of the paper. Sorry, but we will not be able to answer inquiries about individual entries.

Entries must be in by Friday at 5 p.m. following publication day. Mailed entries must be postmarked not later than 5:00 p.m. Friday.

Only one entry per person allowed. All entries become the property of The Scout and the newspaper reserved the right to discontinue the contest at any time and without notice.

Don't forget to put your name and address on your entry.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

By Roberta Lee

Q. Do you consider it proper, when in a group of persons, to speak privately with another person while someone else is already speaking to the entire group?

A. It is rude to "cross-converse." When one attempts to talk with another person while someone else is talking to the entire group, it probably prevents that person from listening to the first speaker. He could be very much interested.

Q. Where should one's return address be properly placed on the envelope of a letter?

A. The preferred position is in the upper left-hand corner of the face of the envelope, although when the envelope is so small for this, the return address is sometimes written on the back flap.

Q. Should a wrist corsage be worn on the right or left wrist?

A. There is no rule governing this, but probably it would be better to wear it on the left wrist than on the more-often-used right wrist.

Q. Upon being introduced to Miss Ferris for the second time, is it all right to say, "I know Miss Ferris"?

A. This sounds just a little abrupt, as though it were too much trouble to make a second acknowledgment. I should think it would sound much better to say, "I have already had the pleasure of meeting Miss Ferris."

Q. I see more and more people cutting their bread and rolls at the table with their knives. Is this now considered correct?

A. Not at all. Good behavior still requires that bread, rolls, and the like be broken into small pieces with the fingers, and each piece individually buttered as it is eaten.

Q. May I, as the sister of a bride-elect, properly give a party for her, or would this imply that gifts are expected?

A. This would be all right if you emphasize that the party is not to be a shower.

Q. Is it ever proper to ask both men and women to a bridal shower?

A. Usually, when men are included, they are asked to come later after the bride has opened her gifts. However, if the affair is to be a "household shower," instead of a personal one, the men could be asked.

Q. When teen-agers are introduced to the parents of their friends, should they offer their hands first or wait until the older persons make this gesture?

A. According to rules of decorum, the younger persons should wait—but I doubt if any older person would object to this offer of friendship.

Q. Which is it proper to remove from the dinner table first, the serving dishes or the dinner plates?

A. The dinner plates should be removed first.
