

Religion Of Kennedy's Cabinet Members

President-elect John F. Kennedy has nominated to his cabinet seven Protestants, Jews, and a Roman Catholic—all active in their churches or synagogues. Protestant nominees include Presbyterians, two Methodists, a Lutheran, an Episcopalian, and a Mormon. The President-elect's brother, Robert F. Kennedy, 35, is the nominee for Attorney General, is the only member of the Roman Catholic church named to the cabinet, has a reputation as a devout Catholic. He and his wife, Jacqueline, have four children, and have been particularly interested in the welfare of crippled and retarded youngsters. Mr. Dean Rusk, the nominee for Secretary of State, is the son of an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church in the

U. S. (Southern) who held pastorates in Georgia and South Carolina. Dr. Rusk, an alumnus of Davidson (N. C.) College, is a member of the Hitchcock Memorial Presbyterian Church in Scarsdale, New York. The incoming Secretary of Defense, Robert S. McNamara, 44, is an elder of the First Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor, Mich. The Secretary of the Treasury, C. Douglas Dillon, 51, is a prominent layman of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Two Methodists, J. Edward Day, 46, the nominee for Postmaster General, is a member of the official board of the Wilshire Methodist Church of Los Angeles and is described as a very earnest churchman, Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina, who will become the Secretary of Commerce, is also an active Methodist layman. Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota, named Secretary of Agriculture, is an active layman of the Augustana Lutheran Church. Rep. Stewart L. Udall (D-Ariz.) who has been appointed Secretary of the Interior is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-day Saints (Mormon) and is described as a staunch believer. Both Albert J. Goldberg, 52, the nominee for Secretary of Labor, and Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff, 50, of Connecticut, who will be Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, are members of Reform Jewish congregations.

Aronson Names East Atlanta Merchant of Year

It has been announced that Mr. Adir Aronson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aronson of Murphy, has been voted 1960 East Atlanta Merchant of the Year. Mr. Aronson is President and General Manager of Herman's, Inc., men's and boys' apparel shop. Since taking over the operation of Herman's in June, 1960, Mr. Aronson has been an active participant in community affairs. He has been especially progressive with regard to local business problems. In accepting the award, Mr. Aronson stated that he plans to expand operations to various other areas in and around Atlanta in the very near future. However, he emphasized that he will always keep Herman's on the personal customer contact basis which has made it so successful.

Public Records

L. L. Mason, Jr., Com., to Dr. Harry Dickey, property in Notia Township.
L. L. Mason, Jr., Com., to Clayton and Mary Mason, property in Murphy Township.
Frank and Azalea B. Carringer to Newell and W. Julia Owenby, property in Valleytown Township.
F. T. and Lella Trantham to Albert J. and Ruby A. Johnson property in Hot House Township.
T. E. Anderson to Ray J. and Jerrie L. Crisp, property in Notia Township.
Samuel J. Kyker to Edgar H. and Lena W. LaFerry, property in Shoal Creek Township.
Lum A. and Lillie McClure to Alvin Cole, property in Notia Township.
Daniel J. Walton, Tr., to Modern Homes Cont. Co. property in Shoal Creek Township.
Thelma Jarvis Brendle to Paul and Thelma Smith Brendle property in Murphy Township.
Glennason, Jr., and Ammie Marie Hardin, Elizabeth Hardin to Robert Box and John Scott Hardin, property in Valleytown Township.
E. C. and Fannie Moore to Moselle M. Puez, property in Murphy Township.
Clyde and Wilma West to Mrs. Lessie Moss, property in Beaverdam Township.
Charles and Doris Mallonee to James C. and Geneva Setser, property in Murphy Township.
Brazil sells more agricultural commodities to the U.S. than any other nation - $532 million worth in fiscal 1960.

Civitan Club Meets

The Murphy Civitan Club held its regular meeting last Monday evening at 6:30 in the New Regal Hotel dining room. Mr. and Mrs. George Bidstrup from the John C. Campbell Folk School at Brassstown gave a very delightful program showing slides telling of some interesting facts about their trip to Europe this past fall. They also brought several crafts which they had purchased in several countries and showed how a great majority of the people in other lands rely on their handywork and skill to make a living and boost the economy of their nation. Mr. Jordan, president of the club thanked the Bidstrups for coming out on such a bad night to present such a fine program and also to be the first to contribute to the March of Dimes in Cherokee County.

A report on the fruit cases was made showing that members of the club had sold around one thousand pounds. Don Peterson and Dr. C. G. Wilkes were recognized as special guests of the club.

Smith Honored

J. Franklin Smith was among a group of 24 outstanding educators and administrators who were initiated by the Phi Delta Kappa at University of Tennessee, Monday evening, January 9. Phi Delta Kappa is a national honorary fraternity for men in education and administration. Mrs. Smith attended the banquet given for the new members of Phi Delta Kappa and their wives after the initiation ceremony. Mr. Smith is doing Guidance Work for the University.

Inauguration Day

Tomorrow, a new president, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, dedicates himself to the leadership and service of our country in the four critical years that lie ahead. All Americans, regardless of political affiliation, irrespective of race or creed, close ranks and become as one in wishing for him a successful administration. As he assumes the solemn responsibilities of the office of President, we pray for him the good health to bear its heavy burdens, and Divine guidance in the difficult and far-reaching decisions that he must make. We pledge to him our loyal support in the execution of the oath he takes today... to faithfully execute the office of President of the United States and to the best of his ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.

MURPHY HARDWARE CO.
BRUMBY TEXTILE MILLS, INC.
CITIZENS BANK AND TRUST CO.