a glass of beer means many things

To those Counties and Municipalities in our state wherein the "legal sale" of beer and ale is permitted, it means an added Two and a Half Million Dollars in Tax Revenue.

And—to the state's more than Three Million citizens a glass of beer means better living... a better economy. Just one of the reasons why civic-minded citizens enjoy the light, bright refreshment that makes these community advantages possible.

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth ride!

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well. Puffs along pavements like a happy tabby. Takes rough roads in stride and fall roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royals as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in. Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.

Miss Joan Carole Weatherford Becomes Bride of W. C. Anderson

Miss Joan Carole Weatherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Eugene Weatherford of High Shoals, N. C., became the bride of William Columbus Anderson on Sunday, February 12, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The groom is the son of Mr. Moaten Anderson of Murphy, and Mrs. Ada Robinson of High Shoals, N. C.

High Shoals Baptist Church was the scene of the occasion and the Rev. Charles D. Ingle performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar, which featured an arrangement of white gladioli, snapdragons, and gypsophila, centered against a background of palms and organ ferns interspersed with spiral candelabra set with white tapers. A satin covered prayer bench completed the altar decorations.

A program of music was presented by organist, Mrs. Dot Griffin of Charlotte, and vocalist, Miss Helen Rice of High Shoals, who sang "Wherever Thou Goest," "A Sweet Mystery of Life," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Willie Z. Kinley of High Shoals. She wore a gown of imported Peau d'ange lace over peau de soie. The pointed basque bodice was styled with a scalloped neckline traced with sequins and pearls. The lace skirt, accented with silk roses and sequins and pearl motifs was worn over multiple layers of net and extended into a full chapel train. She carried a prayer book, (which had been presented by the Y.W.A. of her church), showered with stephanotis, lilies of the valley, and white orchids.

Attendants of the bride wore cocktail-length dresses of amethyst peau de soie with modesty of purple velvet. They carried purple velvet muffs with purple orchids. They were: Maid of honor - Miss Jeanne Moses of Charlotte; matron of honor - Mrs. Jack Hovis, sister of the bride; bridesmaids - Misses Sandi Caskey, Miss Phyllis Rice, Miss Laura McGinnis, and Miss Penny Griffin.

Flower girls were Misses Barbara Medlin and Teresa Foster. Ring bearer was Warren Beam.

Serving his step-brother as best man was Mr. Dennis Stezer of Lincoln, N. C. Ushers were: Jack Hovis, Don Sullivan, Richard O'Dell, Carroll Robinson, Reggie Heavener, and Joe Pope.

For her wedding trip to Miami, Fla., the bride chose an orchid sheath of peau de soie with matching shoes and purple accessories. She wore
