Lions Club Meets

Robbinsville - The Robbinsville Lions Club met Thursday night, March 16, at Phillips Hotel. Lions Judge Sam Cathey of the Asheville Lions Club and Arnold Hyde of the Candler Lions Club were the special guests. Lion Cathey presented the program for the evening.

The Robbinsville Lions Club has made the following services available for the blind and visually handicapped people of Graham County during the year of 1960. There were 136 visits to the Eye Clinic for eye examinations. This number included school children as well as adults. Of this number, 110 received glasses at a cost of $45.00. The club paid the cost of transportation of one person to Johnson City, Tennessee, for an eye examination at a cost of $25.00. One picnic was held in which the blind and visually handicapped of our county were the guests of the evening. The club contributed the amount of $60.00 for the travel and salary of the case worker for the blind. The amount of $176.00 was remitted to the White Cane Drive. The amount of $23.00, a dollar per member, was contributed to the Eye Bank for Restoring Sight, Inc., in Winston-Salem, N. C. The club has spent a total of $464.00 for work for the Blind and Visually Handicapped. At Christmas, the club contributed a gift of $10.00 for each blind person under our care in the county for a total of $130.00. The members of the club contributed a total of 280 man hours for the work of the blind. A total of 17 persons received treatment for their eyes in the Eye Clinic which is held in the Graham County Health Center. There were 2 persons who received surgery for their eyes. This is truly an impressive record for Robbinsville Lions Club.

Frazier Attends Meeting

Charles O. Frazier, Superintendent of the Andrews City Schools, attended a joint meeting of the Finance and Appropriations Committees of the North Carolina General Assembly in Raleigh Memorial Auditorium last week.

Special Holy Week Services Planned

Messages relating to later events in the life of Christ brought by Rev. W. T. King, guest minister at a family supper gathering, and the observance of the Lord's Supper on the anniversary night of its institution will mark observance of Holy Week at Murphy Presbyterian Church, beginning this Sunday.

There will be special music for all the services, held each evening. Sunday through Thursday, at 7:30; and there will likewise be a half-hour morning service at 7:30 Monday through Thursday.

The family supper gathering will be held at Westminister Building at 5:15 Wednesday evening. Holy Communion will be observed Thursday night, March 30, and the session will meet after evening worship to receive members.

Mr. King, who is from near Johnson City, Tenn., comes as the Presbyterian Mission to the Nation speaker, in the centennial of the Southern Presbyterian Church being observed over the bounds of the Assembly. At morning worship meditations, he will treat "The Miracles Of Jesus."

Evening themes are: Palm Sunday, March 25, "The Power of Decision;" Monday, "God's Call To Purity;" Tuesday, "The Temptation of Lesser Loyalties;" Wednesday, "Spectators at the Cross;" on Thursday, "Guest at the Lord's Banquet Table."

The church choir, with Mrs. R. H. Foard at the organ, will lead the singing each evening except Monday when members of the eighth grade school chorus, directed by Mrs. J. W. Davidson, are to sing. On Tuesday evening, Miss Joyce Waldroup of Brass town will be guest soloist; and Wednesday night the children's choir will sing, with Susan Barrett as soloist.

Home Demonstration Club Holds Spring Council Meeting

The Spring County Council meeting of the Home Demonstration Clubs of Cherokee County was held March 15th, at the home of Miss Thelma Wheeler, Home Economics Agent.

The main objective of this meeting was to complete plans for the District I Federation meeting to which Cherokee County will be host on May 4.

Mrs. Howard Martin, who is County Council president, opened the meeting by having the group repeat the collect, followed by prayer.

Much discussion was given to explaining better public relations which will be the theme for the meeting. It was pointed up that the first week in May is National Home Demonstration week and plans were made for trying in better public relations through all media - the press, radio, window exhibits, and specific plans which local clubs have under consideration.

The 4-H girls will serve as pages and report the activities in which they have participated during the year.

Nine Home Demonstration Clubs throughout Cherokee County were represented at

Bloodmobile To Visit Graham County

On Thursday, March 30, the Bloodmobile Unit will visit our county and will headquarter at Fontana Mills from 1:00-6:00 p.m. Any person who gives blood will receive a credit card, which will entitle his whole immediate family to receive free Red Cross Blood anywhere in the United States and in an unlimited amount. Every family in our county needs this protection.

Also to report on our 1961 fund raising campaign, $461.00 has been received to date, $381.00 of which was raised through the efforts of the three schools in Graham County. Also contributing to date, Fontana Mills Div., James Lees & Sons Company, $50.00; Robbinsville Lions Club, $25.00; Ruth Lockman Red Cross Worker, $5.00 of her $10.00 pledge. This leaves a total of $615.00 to be collected. We must meet our quota if we remain in the Bloodmobile program. Please mail your contribution today to Elmo Ghormley, treasurer, Doyle Brock, County Chairman, Harry Rogers, Bloodmobile Chairman, J. A. Stanley, Fund Raising Chairman, Elmo Ghormley, Treasurer

CAP To Meet

Robbinsville - The Robbinsville Civil Air Patrol will meet Monday, March 27, 1961, at the Graham County Courthouse at 7:30 p.m. Visitors and all interested persons are invited to attend.

The Civil Air Patrol is now organizing a rescue squad and persons who are interested in the rescue squad are urged to come Monday night. The Cadet training program has been started. The Cadets are now studying "Aviation And You," and a lecture is given each Monday night about character and citizenship. Each and every teenager should hear these lectures for it will help them to understand themselves and others.

Grover Willis is the Commander of the CAP; Wendell Estes is in charge of the public information.

PTSA Meets

Robbinsville - The Robbinsville Parent-Teacher-Student Association met Monday night, March 20, with a large number of people present.

Mrs. Ted Jordan, president, presided. The minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Kathleen Brooks, and were approved by the group.

Mrs. Jordan appointed a nominating committee to select officers for the coming year. The committee will be composed of Mr. Model Walsh, Mrs. Mable Hooper, and Mrs. LaVerne George, who will present at the next meeting the new slate of officers.

The Dramatics Club presented a play for the program. Jerry Hyde introduced the play and the cast, Jerry Holden as the father, Pam Barker, as daughter Betty, Clarence Brooks as the mother, and Russell Wiggins portrayed a twelve year old boy.

The elementary room count was won by Mrs. Belle Martin; the high school, by Mr. Joe Wiggins.

The minstrel to be given by the PTSA will be given May 5-6.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the parents visited the science fair in the different rooms.

Personal Mention

Miss Barbara Millsaps, a freshman at the University of Tennessee, was the weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Millsaps.
