Cancer Caravan Visits Murphy

The Cancer Caravan sponsored by the North Carolina Moose Association visited in Murphy on Saturday, April 22. The Caravan arrived at Murphy at 5:15 p.m. They were greeted by Mr. L. L. Mason as Mayor of the town, by Reverend R. T. Houts, President of the Cherokee County Cancer Society, by Mrs. R. T. Houts, Mrs. L. L. Mason, and Mrs. Holland McSwain, representing the Woman's Club and by Mr. P. J. Henn

as a local member of the Moose Lodge.
Traveling with the Caravan were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sprinkle of Winston-Salem and Mr. Gene Power. Mr. Sprinkle is President of the North Carolina Moose Association and Mr. Power is Field Representative of the American Cancer Society. The members of the Caravan presented Mr. Mason the "Sword of Hope," symbol of the American Cancer Society. The scroll which they had carried with them to each town was signed by Mr. Mason, Mr. Houts and Mr. Henn.
Starting at Manteo, North Carolina, the caravan has visited most of the counties and towns of North Carolina in a tour which covered more than 2,500 miles. The purpose of the Caravan was to stimulate interest in the program of education, research and service carried on by the American Cancer Society. April is the month in which local Cancer Society chapters will present the appeal for financial contributions and support.
