TAX RATE SET

At the Regular May meeting of Commissioners, the tax rate for year of 1961 was set at $1.72, this being an increase of 4 cents to existing tax rate of $1.68. This increase was made on the account of the recent legislation increasing the salaries of the clerk of the Superior Court, the Deputy Clerk, Register of Deeds, and his assistant. The increase of double the amount paid Jurors, the triple increase of witnesses, also other climbing expenses of the county.

We had hoped that we would be able to serve our term out with the rate of $1.68 but these added expenses made it impossible to
